

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

GARY COCKRIEL

Hi Gang,

I hope this finds you all well. Welcome to all new members, we're glad you joined us! Let us know if there is something or somewhere you would like for us to look into as a club. We want to do what you want to do, if possible.

We had a very good turn-out at the Corvettes and Coffee on June 19th at Spencer's on the Bypass. I think we had 24 cars! Everyone seemed to enjoy the time together. Several even went on a ride afterwards. We will be planning more of these as the summer moves on.

We have had others plan some rides and many went on them as well. If you would like to plan a ride then set it up and do the invite. Always remember you are representing the club when out in groups so be kind and respectful on the road and in public.

We also in June started our Tuesday's with Torie again after a year without them. There were about thirty people who attended the first one. The next one will be the 20th of July at Montana Grill starting at 5:00. Torie will send an email for you to RSVP back on, so we know how many to count on.

The July meeting has been moved from the first Saturday night to the second Saturday night, July 10th. We will have a cookout at Freeman Park starting at 4:00pm. Everything will be supplied but you can bring dessert if you would like. Also bring your lawn chairs. The cost is $10.00 a person and we need to know if you are planning on coming. You can go onto our web site and register and pay or let me know (by Monday!) and pay at the picnic.

There are several car-shows and cruise ins scheduled. Watch the club website for all events. We also post some activities on our Facebook page so keep an eye on that as well.

Until next time, Be Safe!

IMPROMTU CRUSING

Have the urge to take the Vette out? Phone a friend and turn your solo run into a gathering of friends. This group did just that during the lovely month of June.

IN MEMORY OF ERV SHUMWAY

CLBG received a note from Erv Shumway's daughter. She will be having a memorial for him on July 17 and extended an invitation to anyone in our club (See the note in the photo below). The club sent a donation in his memory.

27th Anniversary – 9/2-4 ... Online registration for the Anniversary celebration is now open and available on the NCM's website. Online registration costs are $20 for Lifetime members, $25 for members and $35 for non-members. The deadline for online registration is 5:00 p.m. on August 14th, 2020. Most of the Anniversary events have a limited headcount. Having said that, as of this writing, all the scheduled events have a large number of available openings.

While this Anniversary celebration is not expected to reach the attendance level of major milestone anniversaries like the 25th, it is sure to be a wonderful opportunity to get together with Corvette enthusiasts from across the country.

"America's Sports Car" magazine in your mailbox ... By now all NCM members should have received their "America's Sports Car" quarterly magazine (a perk of NCM membership). This is the first issue of new magazine editor, Mariah Hughes. She is co-editing with Deb Howard. This issue is chock-full of informative and interesting articles, many of which are written with a personal slant. It's worth a read.

Stingray Grill remains under construction ... The goal of the Stingray Grill is to offer a memorable and fun dining experience. And, oh yes, great food as well.

The Stingray Grill has been operating on a limited basis with a limited menu. Seating areas have moved periodically to accommodate construction needs. One of the major design elements is getting the bar and counter area constructed to mirror the view of the artistic vision of the designer. When finished, this area is sure to be a memorable focal point for all patrons.

We recently visited the Stingray Grill. On that day, seating was not available inside the grill, and it was raining so there was no seating available in the outdoor area. We were a little disappointed to be seated at the tables located near the front entrance to the Stingray Grill at the end of Corvette Blvd. But great food and excellent service soon erased all disappointment.

An exact date for a full grand opening has not yet been set. But we are anxiously looking forward to a return visit to the Stingray Grill.

Disclaimer: I know that many of you view the former diner with a great deal of nostalgia (I am one of those.) Yes, the current design of the new grill definitely offers a different vibe. But give it a try. You might like it.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH!

Hasselback Potatoes

I only recently heard of the Hasselback potato (thank you, Food Network shows), and with a name like that, I had to look into it. The Hasselback is actually more of a technique than a recipe. Its intriguing name comes from the Swiss hotel/restaurant, the Hasselbacken, whose chef came up with this people-pleasing potato presentation. Now grab your chopsticks, and give the Hasselback a try!

Ingredients:

- Potato - Smaller sized Russet potatoes work nicely, but a large baking potato would also work, just with increased baking time. You can use any type of potato you like, such as Yukon Gold, or even the aptly named Little Potato now popular and easily found at the stores.
- Melted butter. Start with $\frac{1}{4}$ cup for 2 to 4 potatoes but have additional butter on hand to melt and use as needed.
- Salt

Directions:

- Preheat oven to 425 degrees.
- Slice the potato into very thin wafers, leaving them attached at the bottom. There is no regulation size but try to keep them about $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{3}{8}$ inch and keep them as consistent in thickness as you can.
- The chopstick trick – To slice without cutting through to the cutting board, place two wooden chopsticks side by side and set the potato between them. When you cut, the knife will stop when it hits the chopsticks, therefore not cutting completely through.
- Place the potatoes in a shallow baking dish. Spoon the butter over, getting it in between each slice, and sprinkle with salt.
- Bake, uncovered, for 30 minutes, then spoon additional butter over each slice. Return to the oven and bake an additional 30 to 40 minutes. The center of the slices should be tender and the edges crispy and chewy.

Set potato between 2 chopsticks

Slice until knife blade hits the chopsticks
