Message from the President

Happy New Year. July 1-the beginning of the new Board of Directors and fiscal year for the PCBA. The year of "PCBA-The Original Social Media" started with our well-attended Annual Meeting on July 9 at the Marriott Pere Marquette. We said goodbye and thank you to President Michele Miller and the 2017-2018 Board and Committee Chairs. We said hello to our new Treasurer, Emily Wilburn, and our incoming Board and Committee Chairs. We were honored by the presence of the Illinois State Bar Association officers (see photo) and its Executive Director.

Our next opportunity to hang out with other PCBAers is the annual Golf Outing and Dinner to be held at WeaverRidge Golf Course on August 10. Please come to golf; come to dinner; come to enjoy being one of the gang. Hope to see you there.

A huge 'thank you' to our members for their support of this Association and the practice and profession of law. If you have any suggestions, comments, or ideas concerning the Association please do not hesitate to contact me at richard@cglawfirm.com directly. Have a great August.

Fitness Health & Wellness

What is a triathlon? By Rob Everett

Are you still tired after getting a full night's sleep? Here are some helpful tips. Avoid ending the night with a nightcap. Alcohol can reduce deep sleep and suppress REM sleep. Avoid using electronics right before bed. Electronics can interrupt our brain's ability to produce the sleep-promoting chemical melatonin and electronics may trick our brain into thinking it is daytime. Avoid caffeine three hours before bed. Caffeine is a stimulant and will increase alertness. Try to keep your bedroom dark and quiet. Try using "white noise" from a fan or sound machine to relax you and help drown out sudden noises that may cause you to wake at night. For more helpful tips check out <http://www.alaskasleep.com/blog/why-tired-after-full-nights-sleep>

The mission of this committee is to encourage active lifestyles to enjoy healthier lives. We congratulate those who have made that choice. Join them this year and sign up today!

Local Pro Bono Opportunities through PILI -

It may be a name you're not familiar with, but Public Interest Law Initiative or PILI is a statewide nonprofit organization with a mission to cultivate a lifelong commitment to public interest law and pro bono service within the Illinois legal community to expand the availability of legal services for people, families and communities in need. PILI envisions a legal community with a deeply rooted culture of service, where law students, lawyers and legal professionals at all stages of their careers engage in public interest law or pro bono work, and remain committed to addressing the unmet legal needs of the poor and underrepresented. PILI's programs include the Law Student Internship Program, the Graduate Fellowship Program, and a Pro Bono Program.

PILI offers several volunteer opportunities in Peoria County as part of its Pro Bono Program through the Tenth Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee. The committee, launched in partnership with Prairie State Legal Services and with the support of the Peoria County Bar Association, consists of lawyers and judges who are striving to increase pro bono services locally. The pro bono opportunities launched by the committee complement existing programs and fill service gaps left by a lack of resources to legal aid. They include answering questions during a two-hour shift at the Self-Represented Litigant Help Desks in Peoria and Tazewell Counties, assisting clients who have a conflict with Prairie State through the Conflict of Interest Pro Bono Referral Panel, and providing pro bono referrals to veterans through the Illinois Armed Forces Legal Assistance Network (IL-AFLAN).

The Tenth Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committee is one of eight such committees across the state and is chaired by Judge Lisa Wilson. Learn more about this committee at www.pili.org/10thcircuit or you can contact PILI Program Manager Sarah Taylor by email or by phone at 312-832-5127.
