

IAWRP Corporate Sponsorship Program

IAWRP values the support we receive from our corporate sponsors. Your support allows us to execute our mission of being dedicated to supporting individuals and organizations that are involved in all aspects of water rescue operations by keeping its members abreast of advances in training, equipment, and life saving techniques through programs and grants. IAWRP provides a conduit between the user community, industry and regulatory agencies at large to ensure the needs of its membership are presented and met. IAWRP will maintain an environment where water rescue professionals can openly communicate ensuring that we may all benefit from our combined knowledge and experience.

IAWRP currently offers three defined levels of Corporate Support: Platinum, Gold & Silver. All sponsorships are one year in length from time of commitment.
