

International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC) is the humanitarian arm of the Assembly of Canonical Bishops of the United States of America. Since its inception in 1992, IOCC has provided in collaboration with its partners more than $661 million in humanitarian relief and sustainable development programs in over 60 countries worldwide.

Through the IOCC's "Greece Greatest Needs Fund", IOCC is working closely with Apostoli, the humanitarian arm of the Archdiocese of Athens supporting immediate basic needs for fire survivors in Attiki as well as helping in the recovery effort. IOCC's commitment is always to work with the most affected communities and identify appropriate short and long-term responses to their needs.

IOCC identifies needs, develops plans, manages operations, tracks grants, guides programs, and assures reports and transparency. More information on how this organization works can be found on IOCC.org.
