

December 2018 LOWLINC Social Activities and Events

Take a look at LOWLINC's December festivities on this page and let Stacey know at 1-855-569-5462 which ones you'll be participating in. See the reverse for other events at the Lake.

LOWLINC Holiday Dinner, Thursday, December 6, 5:30 p.m. Clubhouse Dining Room

Kick off the holidays with a festive dinner at the Clubhouse, which will be beautifully decorated for the season. This year, we'll have a cash bar and buffet, and all dinners will be prepaid. On the menu: garden salad, carved beef au jus, carved turkey, corn bread, garlic mashed potatoes, vegetable medley and pumpkin pie. Cash bar. Cost per person is $20, prepaid by mailing your check to LOWLINC, P.O. Box 518, Locust Grove, VA 22508. Deadline for receiving your check: November 26.

Christmas Carols at Fareways, Tuesday, December 11, 5:30 p.m.

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without beautiful carols. We'll gather at Fareways for Open MIC night when Chris Forzano and Mark Tarallo (the popular Chris and Mark Duo) will sing some of the season's favorites. You can order from the regular Fareways menu if you wish, including a beverage from the bar. Chris and Mark usually play until 8:00 p.m. The entertainment is free, but Chris and Mark gladly accept donations for St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

Free Holiday Gift Wrapping, Monday, December 17, Location TBD, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Do you have gifts you need to wrap, or do you simply hate wrapping? Volunteers will have tape, wrapping paper and ribbon to assist you in creating the most beautifully wrapped gifts ever! If you have a particular wrapping paper you like, please bring it. This event is open to your friends and neighbors, too. There is no charge, but donations of ribbons and paper are gladly accepted. We are hoping the Trophy/Cardinal Room at Woods Center will re-open in time to gather there. If not, we'll be at the Community Center.

Please return your Member Satisfaction Survey. We want to hear from you! If we have not yet received your 2018 Membership Satisfaction Survey, a copy is enclosed with this flyer. Please let us know how we're doing and give us your ideas for activities and improvements. Mail it by Friday, November 23 to: LOWLINC, P.O. Box 518, Locust Grove, VA 22508. Thank you.

Health and Wellness: Chair Exercise Class. There's always room in the new LOWLINC chair exercise class led by LOW fitness expert Donna Jackson. The classes are held Mondays and Thursdays, noon to 12:45 p.m. in Meeting Room 2 at the Community Center. Call Stacey or just drop by the next class to try it out. Don't be shy...come out and start getting buff with the rest of us!

Other Happenings Around the Lake:

AARP Monthly Meeting, Monday, November 19.

Aging Together's executive director, Carol Simpson, will give a presentation on The World's Centenarians. Who doesn't want to enjoy a talk that includes the secrets of living to be 100? Those secrets will be revealed with lessons from the world's centenarians. Carol will also explain exactly what Aging Together is and will share local community resources that are available for older adults. The meeting is in the Great Room in the Clubhouse on Monday, November 19 at 9:30 am for breakfast treats. The meeting begins at 10 am. Call Stacey if you want to attend and need a ride.

On Monday, November 19 Harry's Alehouse will host a Charity Monday to benefit the Lions Wilderness Food Pantry. Harry's will donate 10% of all sales between 4 p.m. and 9 p.m. to the Food Pantry.

The Rave-Ons are Coming Back!

Remember the rockin' Rave-Ons from last year's At the Hop concert? Todd Meredith and his Buddy Holly band of brothers will be at Lake of the Woods Dec. 10 and 11. The December 10 show is sold out, but tickets are still available for the Dec. 11 show. The performance starts at 7:00 p.m. at the Community Center. This event is sponsored by Friends of Lake of the Woods and tickets are $35 each, available at www.lowplayers.org.
