LOWLINC Speaker Series: Legal Topics for Seniors. Wednesday, May 3, 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon. LOW Community Center.

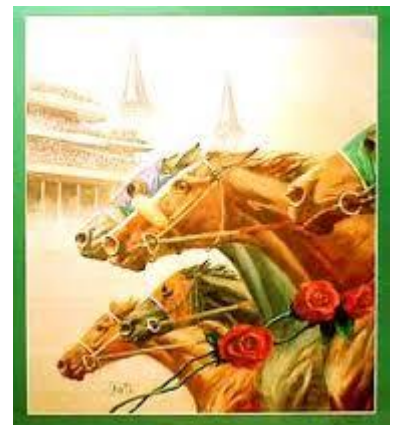

Legal issues often seem so complicated or confusing that we neglect dealing with them. Questions arise: Who needs a will, a trust, powers of attorney, or advanced medical directives? Attorney Katherine Charapich's presentation will aid in understanding estate planning documents that can help provide protection for persons as well as their financial investments. Ms. Charapich will discuss protecting individuals' interests and well-being should they become incapacitated and protecting assets for their care. She will also address ways to ease the transfer of remaining assets to beneficiaries.

Katherine Charapich, a lawyer based in Culpeper, Virginia, focuses on estate planning, elder law matters, and business formation and contracts. Ms. Charapich obtained her Juris Doctor from Liberty University School of Law, where she also served as Editor-in-Chief of the Liberty Legal Journal. She earned a reputation for excellence in client service during her 20 years of prior business experience that she continues to build upon in her practice today.

LOWLINC Kentucky Derby Party. May 6, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Fareways Cafe at the Woods Center.

Join your fellow horse racing enthusiasts for the 143rd Run for the Roses. We will gather at the Fareways Café for pre-race festivities, then watch "The Greatest Two Minutes in Sports" together at 6:30. When you check in on May 6, you will be given 10 raffle tickets, choose your favorite horse and place your raffle ticket in a corresponding bucket. The winner will be drawn from the bucket of the winning horse. There will be other raffle prizes as well, including a prize for best hat. Extra tickets for raffles will be available for sale at Fareways on Derby Day.

If you will be attending, send a check for $10.00 per person payable to LOWLINC, P.O. Box 518, Locust Grove, VA 22508 by April 27th. Please note "Kentucky Derby Party" on the check. The fee will cover appetizers, decorations and raffle prizes. Derby-themed drinks and dinner will be available for purchase. TVs will be tuned to the Derby at 5:00 p.m. for pre-race events. The race starts about 6:30 p.m.

Reserve with Sparkle by April 27.

Luncheon at Private Home on Sophia Street in Fredericksburg. Wednesday, May 10.
10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

LOWLINC received the following gracious invitation from Nancy Gasparovic, a friend of Board member Carolyn Graham:

"It's my pleasure to welcome LOWLINC members and volunteers to my home in the historic district of Fredericksburg. I've been blessed to live there 1 1/2 years and especially enjoy the stunning view of Chatham Manor across the Rappahannock River.

The house, known as "The Jarrell House" after the family who acquired it in the 1960s, has undergone many major upgrades through the years, many of which were necessitated by 3 hurricanes. The original section, built circa 1920, retains much of its original charm. I have begun researching more of the history of the home so your visit is a grand impetus to learn even more so I can share it with you.

It is a naturally beautiful spot in God's world and I love to share it!"

You can bring our own bag lunch or you can select a sandwich and/or dessert from the Menu attached to this flyer from the Battlefield Country Store located on Route 3. All sandwiches are $4.49. Members and Volunteers will gather at the Clubhouse parking lot at 10:30 a.m. At that time, your selection and payment for lunch will be collected (cost of meal plus 9.3% tax). Your lunch will be purchased and brought to the Gasparovic home in time to enjoy lunch on the patio overlooking the river and Chatham Manor. Lemonade will be provided. Please bring the completed Menu for lunch with you that morning.

Reserve with Sparkle by May 3.

LOWLINC Game Day and Pizza Party. Monday, May 15, 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., LOW Community Center.

Please come and join us for another Game Day/Pizza party. We had a great time in March playing Bingo and Crazy Eights, followed by great conversation and lots of laughs over pizza. We have plenty of games and card games for everyone to join in. We will teach you any game you are interested in trying, even if you have never played before.

Bring your own lunch or join us in ordering pizza for $5. Bottled water will be provided.

Memorial Day Flag Raising at Clubhouse Point. Monday, May 29. 11:00 a.m.

The Lake of the Woods Veterans Club sponsors the annual Flag Raising Ceremony at the Clubhouse point to honor all our Veterans on Memorial Day. It is a moving ceremony and an opportunity to start this holiday weekend off on a very high note. The ceremony begins at 11:00 a.m.

The ceremony is brief and we hope you will join us afterwards for lunch at the Fareways Café at the Woods Center.
