Reopening Haiti to Cruisers

Sam Altema has been appointed as the Seven Seas Cruising Association's Cruising Station Host for the anchorage of Ile-à-Vache, Haiti. Frank Virgentino, author of Free

FRANK VIRGENTINO

Meet Sam Altema, the international Seven Seas Cruising Association's new Station Host for Ile-à-Vache, Haiti

Cruising Guides, says, "This prestigious certification by SCSA marks the reopening of Haiti as a safe cruising area. Sam has been extremely helpful for many years to boats visiting this quaint island off the southwest corner of Haiti and this acknowledgement validates all of his work."

During 2013 Sam will also work with Frank on visiting four other good locations in Haiti for cruising boats and hopefully establishing more SCSA Cruising Stations. In addition to Ile-à-Vache, the proposed routing stops are Mole St. Nicholas, Grand Baie, Pestel and Anse D'Hainault.

Sam can be contacted at altema1986@hotmail.com. For more information on SCSA Cruising Station Hosts contact jeconover@sv-growlfiger.com.
