Do you wish to market your products/services to TxAPPS members?

Yes

No

If yes, please tell us in the space provided below, specifically what products or services you wish to market to our members.

Partnering members and Sustaining members will receive a member listing in the TxAPPS membership directory, as well as special recognition on the TxAPPS website as sponsors who support our organization. Additionally, Sustaining members receive advertisement within the TxAPPS newsletter. Sustaining members will also receive invitations to exhibit their products and services at all TxAPPS-sponsored events. TxAPPS members are encouraged to support and promote both our Partnering and Sustaining members as they do their fellow process server members.

Do you have a publication-ready company logo or advertisement to submit with this application?

Yes

No

If no, when can you have one ready?

Partnering & Sustaining members must also agree to abide by the TXAPPS Bylaws and Code of Ethics. Copies of each are available to download, review, and print at www.txapps.org.

Read carefully the following:

I authorize the Texas Association of Professional Process Servers (TXAPPS) to investigate the statements made on this application and my qualifications for membership.

I understand that membership, if granted, will be in my name and not that of any company owned by me or with which I am affiliated. I further understand that my membership cannot be transferred to another person and that my membership dues are non-refundable.

I have read and agree to abide by the TXAPPS Bylaws and Code of Ethics, and to all amendments thereto.

I agree to submit to binding arbitration in all disputes with TXAPPS members involving fee, work performance, and professional conduct in accordance with the procedures set forth in the TXAPPS Bylaws and Code of Ethics.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the statements made in this application are true and correct.
