

Protecting what's important to you...

Securing today and tomorrow

Social Security is committed to protecting your personal information and your benefits. Impersonation phone scams are increasing. Don't be fooled. Follow these tips to protect yourself.

Phone Scam Allegation Trend

What to look out for

An automated call saying your Social Security number has been "suspended for suspicion of illegal activity" and asking you to contact them to resolve the issue.

Callers using threatening language, such as arrest or other legal action.

Calls "spoofing" Social Security's phone number.

Any call asking you to provide credit card information or to add money to gift cards.

Be Alert

- We may call in some situations, if you have ongoing business with us.
- Social Security will never:
 - » Threaten you for information.
 - » Promise a benefit increase in exchange for personal information.

Be Active

- If you receive a questionable call from someone claiming to be us, just hang up.
- Report suspicious calls or emails online at oig.ssa.gov/report or by calling 1-800-269-0271.
