

IPA Student Benefits

The Illinois Paralegal Association (IPA) is a professional association that is so much more than just another highlight on your resume. IPA provides its members with many chances to improve their skills, to learn about different areas of practice, to network with other students and experienced paralegals through social events, educational seminars, and specialty section meetings. IPA will provide you with a recipe for success by providing you with the tools you need to network, job hunt, and stay current in your field. Please visit our website to further explore the many benefits of membership in IPA. While you are there, please take the opportunity to apply for membership online.
