Encouraging creativity in visual arts and serving the community since 1950

President's Message

Well, I guess just like about everybody else, I have been dealing with the pandemic restrictions. For instance, staying at home is easy since I don't go anywhere anyway – and nobody invites me, either. With regard to masks, I decided to go to a liquid diet. I just cut a small hole in the mask near my mouth. It works OK except that the little umbrella always seems to get caught in the straw. Staying six feet away is more difficult. I attached my paint brushes to a broom handle. It sort of works, but it's hard to do the details.

As you may have noticed, this edition of the newsletter is a few days late. That was done on purpose so that we could include the list of award winners for the Fall Show held at the Betsy Lueke Creative Arts Center. The artworks were to be delivered on Monday, November 2, with the judging to follow. An on-line catalog is being created to enable us all to see what was submitted. There is also to be a video walk-through of the show. However, nobody from BAA was to be admitted to the walk-through due to the pandemic limitations of the center. Therefore, we will all have to wait and be surprised. Keep an eye on your email inbox for notices on availability of the catalog and video.

Soon we will invite you to submit something for the Winter 2020 Isolation Gallery with a holiday theme. These will be set up on the web site as we have done with the other Isolation Galleries. Any holiday will do. We will send out an email when we are ready for that. If you have not seen the previous galleries, please go to the main web site and use the links at the top of the page. There is some great stuff there to enjoy.

Stay safe and keep painting, sewing, casting, throwing, chiseling, soldering and hammering.

Printing Businesses

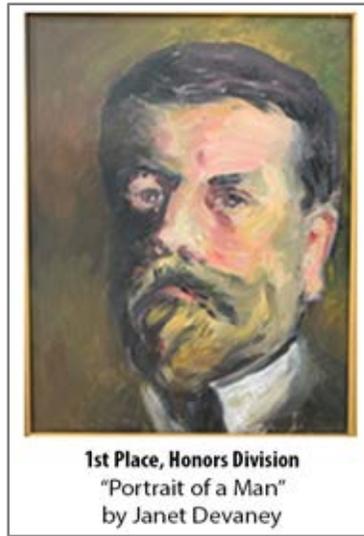

Several members have voiced a need for printing businesses specializing in producing fine art copies (such as giclee) of original artwork. The Board has compiled a list of some of these businesses and would appreciate the members adding to this list with suggestions of printing companies you have used and like (including name, website and phone number). Email information to Debra Reynolds (debdawna@yahoo.com) and she will add your suggestion to the existing list.

Greetings! What a great Fall Show we put together – many thanks to all participants for your outstanding artwork! If you missed the Zoom viewing of the Fall Show video on Sunday, you can view the video and catalog on our website and FB page. The direct links will also be available to share with friends and family.

PLEASE NOTE: Art pick-up will take place on Thursday, November 19 from 10am to 1pm. We will be stationed in front of the Creative Arts Center to retrieve and bring your artwork out to you. If you are unable to pick up your art during that time, please arrange for someone to pick up for you and let me know who to expect.

I'll be looking ahead now to our Annual Spring Members' Show in April. In the meantime, keep doing what you do and keep it real! Ellie

GEO GALLERY NEWS ~ Joanna Lewis

Isolation Gallery artwork at the Geo Gallery

Take-down and pick up will take place on Thursday, November 19 from 10am to 1pm (the same date as the Fall Show pick up).

The Geo exhibit is coming down early to make way for the “Stand Together Against Hate” poster exhibit. Read more about this exhibit below.

OUTSIDE EXHIBITS

Stand Together Against Hate - from November 30 - December 6

The Burbank Human Relations Council invites you to participate in a themed poster exhibition at The Geo Gallery (home of Burbank Art Association).

Theme: “Stand Together Against Hate”

Uniting together is the most powerful tool we have to build an inclusive community. Join us in the effort to communicate your commitment to make everyone feel safe and supported.

What: Posters should be your creative interpretation of the theme - using paint, markers, collage, mixed media - on a standard poster board no larger than 20”x28 (smaller sizes accepted, too). Exhibit is open to students and adults of all abilities.

When: Bring your Poster Art to The Geo Gallery on Saturday November 28 between 9 am and 12 noon. (To schedule poster drop-off at another time or day call 818-860-2472.)

Where: The Geo Gallery, 1545 Victory Blvd. (between Western and Riverside Dr/Sonora Ave.) Park behind the building and a drop-off table will be near the back door. Be sure to put your name and contact information on the back of your poster.

Posters will be featured on the Burbank Human Relations Council FB page and website. The Geo Gallery is open for limited viewing between 9 am - 5 pm Monday through Friday, two people at a time. Must wear a mask. Back door entrance only.

Poster Pick Up will be on Saturday, December 12 between 9am and 12noon. (To schedule another day and time for poster pick up, call 818-860-2472.)

NOVEMBER PROGRAM ~ Stefanie Girard

Date: Burbank Art Association meeting on November 18, 7pm.
Link for Zoom log-in will be emailed to members.

Art demonstration Information for David Deyell

David is a landscape painter. He will discuss how all media artists can create art using values, shapes and color. Using what is seen and then interpreted. David teaches creation rather than duplication.

Background: N.Y. Technical High School, Pratt University, Licensed California Architect, AIA Emeritus, Author of "Art of Plein Air Watercolor" published book, Annual Yosemite Resident Artist (20 years), weekly local art classes in Oak Park & City of Agoura Hills, Art Demonstrator, Art competition Juror and winner of several Best of Shows. David's paintings of Yosemite have been purchased by Yosemite Visitors from all over the world.

Instructors: David has learned art from Edgar Whitney, Tony Couch, Milford Zornes, Henry Fukuhara, Tom Fong, Chris Van Winkle, books and my students and fellow artists.

David will TALK and PAINT at same time, demonstrating a scene remembered from Yosemite National Park. Time permitting, he will do a second painting "wet into wet."

PENSTROKES✍️ Helena Bowman

Penstrokes – A short news update from our Members.

We welcome our members to send in information on any interesting art stuff they would like to share. This could be personal accomplishments or events you think we would be interested in.

Send in before the end of the month to Helena: helenasbowman@gmail.com

✿ Nicole Pano, with her daughter and her husband (Josh Smith), has together created a kids Halloween song. They wrote it, composed and arranged it. Nicole wrote, "What would probably be of most interest to the BAA, is that I created & drew all the illustrations in the video. Happy November." She hopes you will enjoy it! Here is the video. It is 1 minute & 30 seconds.

✿ On 4/19, Paula Quasarano went back to work after 3 years of retirement. She worked up to March 2020, at which time there came a rude break in life thanks to the shut-downs caused by Covid. Long story short, she has done a lot of painting, walked the dog, enjoyed the company of her husband. They start to experience again going out to dinner, going to the movies or just having friends over. Paula was surprised & proud of placing 2nd in the La Galeria Gitana Show with her fused glass Seahorse w Coral. She will continue to venture into different areas of the art world such as taking online classes, experimenting with new mediums and just trying new avenues. She wrote, "My heart goes out to those who have suffered from this Ugly Intruder. Stay well, Paula."

✿ Jeanice Deeb is growing vegetables and painting silly little birdhouses!!! This pandemic has forced her to stay home. While juggling with full-time work, she is focusing on gratitude, helping her brother who had a stroke a while back, being conscious and humbled by our current situation and reinterpreting the word “stress”. Jeanice sent a note to our members, “Praying for all! Jean.”

✿ Lately, Evelyn Bresee has been trying new mediums and styles to pick and choose which ones she likes and has fun with! So far, it’s been really fun for her to explore new things and to see what different kinds of art she can make. Evelyn is also the drummer in a band, so practicing drums is a great pastime for her lately, too. She enjoys meeting up with her band to play some music, in a socially distanced manner, of course!

✿ Over the past several of months, Gustavo Osorio have been working on improving his artistic abilities by attending Mina’s Saturday art classes and drawing on a daily basis. In his spare time, he enjoys taking walks around the neighborhood, watching documentaries and comedies and spending time with his immediate family. He wishes for everyone to remain safe and healthy and can’t wait to see everyone in the near future.

✿ Prior to the lockdown in March, Bryan Tran was going to classes at his college every day and painting on the weekends. As the spring and summer went by, his motivation for anything outside of his courses dwindled. However, this fall was Bryan’s first semester at California State University of Northridge (CSUN), and his excitement of being at a new school motivated him to resume painting from his long hiatus. His mother insisted that he should’ve kept up painting throughout the summer. In his defense, Bryan thinks that his hiatus from painting gave him time not only to cope with more difficult course work, but also to find other hobbies that he now loves, such as binge- watching anime or listening to Japanese covers of popular American songs. Now that Bryan has been back to painting for a few weeks, he has found his favorite subject to paint- his love for wildlife!

✿ Over the last few months, Marcy Mahoney has been working on a series of commissioned pet portraits as well as a more complicated still life for the BAA Fall Show. Marcy usually likes to paint on her apartment patio, but when the weather gets hot and smokey and full of mosquitoes, she moves her easel into their home office and sets up a little space for oil painting near her drawing desk. It’s been a fun and productive few months! Check out her fun and impressive works at Marcy Mahoney’s Instagram: @Marcy_Mahoney or her website www.marcydeweymahoney.com

The Burbank Art Association is a volunteer-run, non-profit organization. Our mission is to stimulate and encourage creative expression and provide a showcase for our members’ talents. Artists of all ages and skill levels are welcome to join. Sponsorships and donations to the BAA help to fund exhibits, awards and student scholarships. Your gift will have a tremendous impact by keeping our organization thriving and serving its community. If you or someone you know would like to become a sponsor, please contact us through our website at: www.burbankartassociation.org
