June 2018 Events Calendar

Friday, June 1, 10:30 am - 1:00 pm

Explorers Walk: Outdoor Sculpture at Harvard

We'll tour the yards and quadrangles of Harvard to look at the extensive and notable collection of sculpture. We will see Daniel Chester French's John Harvard and works by Walker, Moore, Calder, Nevelson, Weems, and others, as well as the imperial stele from the Old Summer Palace in Beijing. Meet in front of the Harvard Coop in Harvard Square. Total walking distance: approx. 2 miles.

Sunday, June 3, 11:00 am

Jazz Brunch at Ryles Jazz Club

After 40 years in Inman Square, Ryles Jazz Club, a Cambridge institution, will close its doors this summer. Join us as we say goodbye to this musical hub! Brunch is self-pay. Open to members.

Monday, June 4 & Monday, June 18, 10:30 – 11:00 am Stroll in the Park, Danehy Park, New St. Entrance

Join fellow members on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of June for leisurely walks through Danehy Park, a 50-acre green space with incredible views. Ample parking is available in the New Street parking lot. These walks will last 30 minutes. Free and open to members and guests.

Come Walk With Us!

Cambridge Neighbors walk through Alewife Reservation in May.

Our walks have become so popular that we are adding more for the summer months! In addition to our Friday walks that explore all of Greater Boston, we'll have shorter walks at Danehy Park in Cambridge. These leisurely walks will be about 30 minutes long and are a great opportunity to get outside and meet new people. All walks are free and open to members and their guests.

Tuesday, June 5 and

Wednesday, June 20, 6:00 – 7:30 pm

Supper at TCH – 360 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge

Join us for a three-course meal at The Cambridge Homes. $15/person in advance. Open to members.

Thursday, June 7, 10:30 am – 1:30 pm

Boston Athenaeum: Art & Architecture Tour 10 ½ Beacon Street, Boston

Founded in 1807, the Boston Athenaeum is one of the oldest and most distinguished independent libraries in the U.S. Our docent-led tour will focus on the architectural history of the Athenaeum's building and the institution's fine arts collection. After our hour-long tour, there will be time to explore before heading back to Cambridge.

$10/person in advance covers admission & tour.
$10/person for roundtrip taxi transportation from Apple
Cinemas. Open to members.

Friday, June 8, 10:30 am - 2:30 pm
Explorers Walk: Frederick Law Olmsted's Jamaica Pond

Jamaica Pond is the largest standing body of water in the Emerald Necklace. We'll take the T to Jamaica Plain and walk the 8 or so blocks to the pond. There we'll walk the 1.5 mile long perimeter path around the pond which Olmsted framed with existing vegetation and additional trees. As we return we'll stop for a light lunch at a Jamaica Plain bistro. Meet downstairs at the main Harvard T station ticketing machines. Total walking distance: approx. 2.9 miles.

Monday, June 11, 5:00 – 6:30 pm
Tipple at Legal Sea Foods, Harvard Square

Tipple is a monthly gathering where members meet over wine and appetizers at Legal Sea Foods. Join us!
$20/person in advance. Open to members only.

Thursday, June 14, 10:00 – 11:00 am
Meditation, CN Office

Join us for our monthly meditation session with CN member and meditation teacher, Joel Baehr. Free and open to members only.

Friday, June 15, 10:30 am - 2:30 pm
Explorers Walk: The Art and Architecture of MIT

We will walk across the MIT campus from East to West, focusing on its century of development in Cambridge, and especially the distinguished work of world-famous architects, sculptors, and painters. Meet downstairs at the main Harvard T station ticketing machines to travel to Kendall Square. After our walk we'll have a light lunch at Clover's and return on the #1 bus to Harvard Square. Total walking distance: approx. 2.5 miles.

Tuesday, June 19, 11:00 am
Leaving the Carbon Economy, CN Office

Cambridge resident, Sue Butler, will share her story as an eco-savvy homeowner who became frustrated with her carbon footprint, and how it led her to dig up her property to make a change. Sue has re-engineered her life and her house to get her carbon footprint as close to zero or below as possible. She's getting close, and may even, in the end, make extra electricity and sell to the grid. Come see what the possibilities are! Free and open to members.

Tuesday, June 19, 2:00 pm
Biography Group, CN Office

This month we will discuss "The Other Half: The Life of Jacob Riis and the World of Immigrant America," by Tom Buk-Swienty. Group is closed.

Friday, June 22, 10:45 am - 5:00 pm
Explorers Walk: Ferry Trip and Walk around Georges Island (Fort Warren) in Boston Harbor

From Harvard Sq. we'll take the T to the Aquarium station to board the noon ferry for a 50-minute ride to Georges Island (snack bar and facilities on board). The island, part of the National Park system, is dominated by the huge, granite fort built in the mid-19th century, best known for its later use as a prison for Confederate Soldiers in the Civil War. There is plenty to explore for those so inclined, and a cafe to enjoy until we return on the 3 pm ferry. Meet downstairs at the main Harvard Sq. station ticketing machines. For those who wish to take a taxi to Long Wharf, meet at Apple Cinemas at 11 am ($10/person). Ferry roundtrip ticket is $15. Walking distance will vary by individual, 1 to 2.5 miles.

Monday, June 25, 5:00 – 6:30 pm
Tipple at Nubar, 16 Garden Street, Cambridge
Tipple is so popular that we've decided to do it twice a month! Join us as we gather at Nubar. $20/person in advance. Open to members only.
