Haeger takes first, Schmidt second in C Scow Invite on Okauchee Lake

OKAUCHEE - Twenty-eight boats from eight inland lakes competed in the 2013 C Scow Invitational, held July 18 through July 21 on Okauchee Lake.

Kent Haeger from Lake Beulah, with Okauchee Lake Yacht Club's Scott Sazama on as a third crew, was the overall winner.

Steve Schmidt paced Okauchee's competitors, winning a race and finishing second overall, just four points out of first.

Alex Kay of Okauchee, a former Blue Chip winner and Inland winner in the X Fleet, won his first C Boat inland Race alongside his crew, Katie Bruder.

Mark Prange also posted a race victory for Okauchee, which was represented in the competition by 10 boats.

Bob Henschel was recognized for his outstanding performance with two top-10 race finishes at the age of 84.

Okauchee's placewinners were the following: second, Schmidt, Matt Prange and Wendy Schmidt; fifth, Mark Prange, Bob Stelter and Debbie Groskopf; sixth, Scott Tarmann, Sam Andreski
