

References for LWVCLA Resolution

In Support of the Jamestown S'Klallam Healing Campus Located in Sequim, Washington

Reference 1

- League of Women Voters Washington Program in Action 2017-2019 see A Leader's Guide to State Program at https://www.lwvwa.org/resources/Documents/ProgramInAction_UpdatedNov2018.pdf
Drug Abuse (2005) The League of Women Voters of Washington supports measures to expand and fund drug abuse prevention education and drug abuse treatment programs as a means to reduce the demand for drugs. DA-3: Integrated services as appropriate, including long-term treatment, counseling and mental health services, to all drug abusers and to meet the needs of individuals with co-occurring disorders. DA-4: Support of community involvement to provide alternative behavior opportunities for potential drug abusers.

References 2

- Center for Opioid Safety Education at the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Institute, University of Washington see Washington State's Opioid Epidemic at: <http://www.clallam.net/hhs/documents/ClallamForum.pdf>
- Peninsula Daily News see Data: Clallam Hit Opioid Peak Highest in State at <https://www.peninsuladailynews.com/news/data-clallam-hit-opioid-peak-highest-in-state/>

References 3

- Center for Disease Control and Prevention see CDC's Response to the Opioid Overdose Epidemic: A Public Health Crisis at <https://www.cdc.gov/opioids/strategy.html>
- Center for Disease Control and Prevention see CDC's Efforts to Prevent Opioid

Overdoses at https://www.cdc.gov/opioids/pdf/Strategic-Framework-Factsheet_Jan2019_508.pdf

- Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) see Medicated-Assisted Treatment at <https://www.samhsa.gov/medication-assisted-treatment>
- National Institute on Drug Abuse see Effective Treatments for Opioid Addiction at <https://www.drugabuse.gov/publications/effective-treatments-opioid-addiction/effective-treatments-opioid-addiction>
- National Council for Behavior Health see Myths about Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) and Opioid Use Disorder (OUD) at https://www.thenationalcouncil.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/10/MF_1_30.pdf
- National Council for Behavior Health see 7 Myths About Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) for Opioid Use Disorder (OUD) at https://www.thenationalcouncil.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/12/Myths-vs-Facts-edited_1215.pdf
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention see Medication-Assisted Treatment for Opioid Use Disorder at: <https://www.cdc.gov/niosh/docs/wp-solutions/2019-133/pdfs/2019-133.pdf?id=10.26616/NIOSHPUB2019133>
- Federal Drug Administration see Information about Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT) at <https://www.fda.gov/drugs/information-drug-class/information-about-medication-assisted-treatment-mat>

References 4

Via multiple LWV member attendance at the following:

- July 29, 2019 Sequim City Council meeting when the center was discussed; and

- August 8, 2019 Sequim City Council Special meeting at the Guy Cole Event Center to view Jamestown’s comprehensive presentation on the center.

Study of the materials and information on the center provided on the Jamestown S’Klallam Healing Campus Website see:

- <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org>;
- <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org/faqs/>;
- <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org/#partners>; and
- <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org/#location>.

Study of the information provided by the Mayo Clinic see How Opioid Addiction Occurs at <https://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/prescription-drug-abuse/in-depth/how-opioid-addiction-occurs/art-20360372?p=1>

Reference 5

- Didgwalic Wellness Center website, see Services at: <http://www.didgwalic.com/services.htm>

Reference 6

- League of Women Voters Washington State see How the League Takes a Position at <https://lwvwa.org/league-positions>

Reference 7

- The Jamestown S’Klallam Healing Campus Website see Healing Campus Partners at <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org/#partners>

Reference 8

- Commissioner Mark Ozias An Open Letter to my friends, neighbors and constituents who are members of Save Our Sequim, and to our entire community at <https://markozias.org/an-open-letter/>

References 9

- Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) see Medicated-Assisted Treatment at <https://www.samhsa.gov/medication-assisted-treatment>

Reference 10

- The Jamestown S’Klallam Healing Campus Website Does the Jamestown Tribe Have to Follow City, State, and Federal Regulations? at <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org/faqs/>

Reference 11

- The Jamestown S’Klallam Healing Campus Website see Location at <https://jamestownhealingcampus.org/#location>