

KCGS Membership

You are invited to become a member of the Kern County Genealogical Society. Membership is open to genealogy and family history researchers of all skill levels.

Member Benefits

- ◆ There are more than 5,000 resource books, as well as periodicals and obituary indexes available in the Beale Memorial Library Genealogy Room.
- ◆ Trained volunteers are available to assist researchers in their quest.
- ◆ Computer access to searchable family name databases is available.
- ◆ Members receive Kern-Gen, the society's quarterly newsletter.
- ◆ Monthly educational workshop programs and seminars by speakers with expertise in genealogical research.
- ◆ A social network of other KCGS members who share a common interest in family history and genealogy awaits you!

KCGS fiscal year begins January 1st and dues are payable each January for the following year.

Please complete the membership application on the reverse side of this brochure and send in to KCGS with your check or money order.

The purpose of Kern County Genealogical Society is to:

- ◆ educate the general public and members of the society in all areas of genealogical research;
- ◆ establish, conduct and manage the genealogical library, and
- ◆ preserve, collect and disseminate genealogical data and family histories worldwide.

To serve the varied historical and genealogical interests of our members and the community, the society's Genealogy Room and its large genealogical research library is accessible during library hours:

Monday: 1:00pm-4:00pm

Tuesday-Thursday: 11:00am-4:00pm

Friday-Saturday: 10:00am-4:00pm

The Genealogy Room is staffed by volunteer members of Kern County Genealogical Society, contact us if you are interested in volunteering.
