

Southwest Missouri Public Relations Society of America Dr. Joe McAdoo Memorial Scholarship Application

The Scholarship Sponsors:

The Southwest Missouri Public Relations Society of America (SWMO PRSA) is an organization that provides a friendly and active forum for sharing ideas and experiences among public relations professionals in the southwest Missouri area.

Dr. Joe McAdoo was a founder and past president of the Public Relations Association of Springfield (which evolved into SWMO PRSA) and former chair of the Department of Communication at Drury University. He was committed to fostering educational opportunities that maintain the distinction and integrity of the public relations profession.

The scholarship fund is managed by the Community Foundation of the Ozarks.

The Scholarship:

- Two (2) scholarships will be awarded for the 2021-2022 academic year.
 - The first-place candidate will receive $700 ($350 Fall/$350 Spring).
 - The second-place candidate will receive $500 ($250 Fall/$250 Spring).
- The recipient may also attend SWMO PRSA monthly membership meetings and one extended program free-of-charge during the academic year.

Eligibility:

- Applicants must be an undergraduate student beginning their junior or senior year or a graduate student pursuing a degree in communication, public relations or a closely related area.
- Applicants must be enrolled full-time (taking a least 12 credit hours per semester undergraduate, 9 hours graduate) at one of the following institutions: College of the Ozarks, Drury University, Evangel University, Missouri State University, Missouri Southern State University, Ozarks Technical Community College or Southwest Baptist University.
- Selection of the scholarship winner will be based on interest and involvement in communications, academic standing, and campus and/or community involvement.

The Application Process (Deadline - April 5, 2021). To apply, students should email the following application materials to scholarship@swmoprsa.org:

1. A completed application form, including a 500-600 word essay (typed in the text boxes provided on the form) describing how the Dr. Joe McAdoo Memorial Scholarship will assist the student in achieving academic and career goals.
2. An updated resume (please emphasize items that highlight communication activities).
3. Official college transcripts.

Please note: Materials must be submitted by midnight on April 5, 2021.
