CALL FOR BIDS

The ILCA is currently seeking bids to host the 2021 ILCA Master and World Championships

AREA/REGION HOST: North America

To the best extent possible, the host should seek to provide:

- A venue conducive to terrific sailing as well as on shore activities.
- Ability to host 65-85+ Master World Championship and 86 (max) World Championship Teams in back to back events. Masters should be 3 days of racing preceded by a practice race day. The Worlds should be 4 days of racing preceded by a day for practice.
- Ability to staff a first-class race committee, International Jury and safety boats. ILCA will have final approval of PRO.
- Ability to provide space for boat measurement (including weighing and sail measurement) and Class Meetings.
- Ability to provide the above for a reasonable registration fee.
- An ILCA Class Representative may be appointed to act as a liaison between the RC and the Class. If applicable that person would be stationed on the main RC Boat.
- A $50 per boat fee payable to the ILCA (for the World Championship only – not Masters) will need to be factored into the entry fee.

Deadline for bids: December 31, 2018. Winning bid will be announced in March 2019

Bids should include:

- Facility Details: Boat parking, hoists, dock space, fresh water hoses, showers/bathrooms, bar/restaurant options, meeting rooms, etc.
- Recommendation of preferred dates and the average conditions that time of year.
- Tentative schedule and events included with registration fee.
- Local Details:
  - Is there any local housing/accommodations?
  - How far are most accommodations to the host site?
  - Do you need a car? bike? or can you walk?
  - Is the area friendly and welcoming? Can a couple walk around feeling safe?
  - Outline local activities/attractions available, particularly for family members that may be attending but not competing.

Arrangements can be made for the ILCA website to be used as the regatta website for information posting and on-line registration purposes. No scoring component is associated with this. A small fee will need to be incorporated into the budget to cover this service. Please inquire.
