Lightning 2016 Canadian Open

Montreal is a wonderful place in the summer, with our famous International Jazz Festival, a distinctive culture and a plethora of amazing restaurants, the one thing we don't usually have is wind. That was not the case this Canada Day (yes that's a thing) weekend, with winds ranging from 10-30 knots and sailors aged 10 to 60 something... we had a bit of everything at the 2016 Canadian Open.

Boats came from far and near, representatives from Thunder Bay and Sh

Saturday was a bit too windy, we all headed out, but with sustained gusts of 30 knots we decided to all head in early for the BBQ. Sunday felt like Miami tacking up a channel in 12 knots with blue skies overhead. The Race Committee did an excellent job and managed to get in 5 races in 4 hours.

A special mention to all the fa

Great event and hope everyone can make it out to the Canadian Open again next year.
