As Julius Caesar once said: Veni, vidi, navigare!

I came, I saw and I sailed the Long John's at MBC on the Navesink River in Red Bank, NJ in 2018!

Six races sailed with 4 on Saturday and two yesterday. Good to see Bill Clausen with his new hip out on the race committee boat! No concussions this year. Not even a boom shot to the head.

Good thing because we didn't have any ice on board! We were pretty consistent in our finishes.

The weather on Sunday was fitting for the name of the regatta "Long Johns".

Always a good time sailing and seeing Lightning Friends! The dinner was great and as we saw from the dead soldier bottles on Sunday morning, so was the post dinner party. We can ask Dale Barney how it was?
