It was a really tight regatta, even with just 8 boats racing. After the first day, with light winds, we only got in 2 races. There was a tie for 1st, (Sawyer and Sloger), with 3rd 1 pt behind (Parshall), and a tie for 4th 1 pt behind that (Scarborough and Krawcheck). On Sunday, the winds were much better, 5 - 12knots, and we sailed an additional 4 races. The Parshall team eked out a 1st with a 1 point lead, followed by Sawyer and Sloger. May thanks to the Columbia Sailing Club for putting on a great regatta, and to Crawford Milling for his debut as PRO. His team did a great job in getting races sailed in challenging conditions. I sailed with Grace O'Hare and Ansley Sloan from the USC Team. - Elaine Parshall
