This past weekend 27 boats competed in Pymatuning Yacht Clubs annual Spring Classic Regatta. Mother Nature does not always cooperate at this event but this year she did not disappoint. After a short postponement on shore Saturday morning to let a storm pass by, the sun came out and a light shifty breeze filled in allowing us to get 3 races in before the clubs famous cocktail party and dinner. Followed by a fun evening of socializing with friends. Sunday brought on warm temps in the 80s and a building breeze in the 15 to 20 range which made for some fun sailing and a couple of capsizes.

Special thanks to my team of Bryan Bahler, Jeff Hagman (Saturday) and Adam Probst (Sunday) they did a great job getting us around the course for the win!

If you haven't been to the Spring Classic put it on the list for next year! Fleet 36's hospitality makes this event one of the can't miss spring regattas!
