Hutton House Lectures

February 15, 2019

Extraordinary Opportunities at Hutton House This March

March is an excellent time to experience lectures taught by scholars. The Hutton House Lectures were established in 1974 to provide adults of all ages with the opportunity to enrich their lives through non-credit, university-level courses with no homework or tests. Register online at webapps.liu.edu/HuttonHouse or call the office at 516.299.2580.

Conversations with Former Congressman Steve Israel

Steve Israel, founding chairman of the LIU Global Institute, will lead you through the halls of Congress. Inside Congress, (3/19/18), Global Challenges (4/23/19) and Common Ground (5/14/19) will be explored.

1:30 – 3:30 p.m. | Krasnoff Theater, Hillwood Commons
3-part series: $125. Individual lecture: $45

Roosevelt, Pulitzer and Hearst: Press Rivals and Presidential Enemies

Yale graduate Peter Kohler will explore the impact of publishers Joseph Pulitzer and William Randolph Hearst on Theodore Roosevelt's presidency. Roosevelt coined the phrase "muckraker" to describe investigative journalists who attacked established institutions and leaders. How does TR's war with the press of his day compare to President

Donald Trump's tweets on "fake news" and the press as the "enemy of the people"?

1 – 2:30 p.m. | Lorber Hall | Tuesdays, March 26 and April 2
2 sessions | Fee: $60

The Rise of the Roosevelts

Roosevelt's great grandson, Tweed Roosevelt, chairman of the LIU Theodore Roosevelt Institute, will lead the three-part series with a special guest for each day of the series.

- Friday, March 29 Joe Weigand, the world's premiere Theodore Roosevelt repressor, actor and historian brings you the TeddyRooseveltShow.com.
- Friday, April 5 Alexander More, PhD., of Harvard's Department of History, discusses: "For the Benefit and Enjoyment of the People: Theodore Roosevelt, the Environment and the General Welfare, Past and Present."
- Friday, April 12 Geoffrey Cowan, JD, Yale-educated author and now University Professor and Annenberg Family Chair in Communication Leadership, University of Southern California, discusses "TR and the Presidential Primaries."

10 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., Fridays | Krasnoff Theater, Hillwood Commons. 30-minute break. Fee: $40 per lecture; $110 for the 3-part series
