

Theodore Roosevelt Association

MEMBERSHIP: APPLICATION GIFT

The Theodore Roosevelt Association, chartered by Act of Congress in 1920, invites anyone interested in helping perpetuate Theodore Roosevelt's memory and ideals to become a member. The TRA has given the American people Theodore Roosevelt's Birthplace in New York City, his home Sagamore Hill in Oyster Bay, Long Island, Theodore Roosevelt Island in Washington, D.C., and Pine Knot in Albemarle, Virginia. Members receive the quarterly TRA Journal. This peer-reviewed publication is the leading source of new scholarship about TR, his life, times, and legacy. Members also receive other communications about the TRA and TR, advance notices of special events, and an invitation to the TRA Annual Meeting, held each fall in different locales. Members enrolled at the Badlands Rancher level and above are publicly recognized, and members enrolled at the Rough Rider level and above also receive gifts of appreciation (please see reverse).
