Don't Miss Out: Saturday Evening Carriage Driving Event!

Join us on Saturday 1st February evening as we aim to start around 5:00 PM! We're thrilled to introduce carriage driving at our Great Lakes All Welsh Club Show this year, featuring an exciting Obsthon for the Carriage Driving exhibitors. Bring your children and enjoy a fun evening with everyone—feel free to bring your dinner and hang out! It's a great opportunity to socialise and we would love to see you there!

TIME TO SHOWCASE THOSE WELSH VETERANS!

We are excited to announce a great opportunity for all Veteran Welsh Ponies! You can enter your 15+ year old dry mare, stallion, gelding, or broodmare in both their sex class and the Veterans class. This is a special chance to celebrate our veteran ponies!

For example, if you bring your 15+ year old Section A gelding, he will be eligible for Class 3—Section A Gelding (4 years and over) and Class 5—Section A Veterans (15 years and over).

Just remember, if you win the Veterans class but do not win your sex class, you won't be eligible for the Champion Adult award. However, winning the Veterans class will qualify you for the Champion Veteran Overall award during our Championship classes.

We are privileged that Canter for Cancer has generously sponsored a lovely leather halter for the Champion Veteran Overall winner. Don't miss this chance to show off your seasoned Welsh Pony and compete for this exciting title!

WPCSNZ Hawker Medallion

The Great Lakes All Welsh Club Inc committee are proud to announce our show has been awarded the Hawker Medallion for the 2024/25 season in the North Island.

RON HAWKER AND THE WOODLIN WELSH COB STUD. (HAWKER MEDALLION)

Written by Kevin Townsend

Ron Hawker was of an age that he could remember horses of Cob type plying the streets of Christchurch doing daily rounds. The Hawker family had a large bakery business in Christchurch. Ron Hawker wanted to rekindle those horse drawn days; the idea of importing Welsh Cobs to New Zealand was a dream that became a reality.

He wrote a letter to Ann Wheatcroft of Sydenham Stud in England asking if she could secure a Welsh Cob stallion and a Welsh Cob mare that was in foal, to establish the Welsh Cob breed in New Zealand. Hewid Dafydd was a resident stallion at Sydenham, foaled in 1965, sired by the influential stallion Cahn

Dafydd and out of the top producing mare Chancerie Polly.

Hewid Dafydd arrived by ship to New Zealand in 1974. With few purebred mares available, Colleen Boston of Glynmawr Stud, leased the mare Te Rangi Dianthus to Ron Hawker to mate to Dafydd, the result a filly, Woodlin Cyntaf, foaled in December 1975. Cyntaf, being the first purebred daughter of Dafydd went back to Glynmawr Stud after Ron Hawker passed away, producing foals for Glynmawr Stud and later Waimarie Stud, Kaiwaka, Northland.

Broughton Gay Girl was a big bay mare by Cream Bank out of Cathedine Gwilt by Cathedine Flyer, so 100% Cob blood for many generations. Gay Girl arrived in New Zealand in 1976, producing the bay roan colt, Woodlin Beau Brummel soon after arrival. Beau Brummel being sired by Llanarth Brummel, Ann Wheatcrofts own stallion, Royal Welsh Champion in 1964 and 1965, also a prolific winner under saddle in Britain.

The first Dafydd x Gay Girl foal arrived in 1977, a bay colt, Woodlin Rounull. Hewid Dafydd was also made available to outside mares, one important mare to visit was Robin and Dianna Bruce's Manorshire Little Model, an over height Section A mare who was to become the dam of Kinkora Nell Gwynne, foaled in 1977. Nell Gwynne was sold to Paul and Colleen Rebay a foundation mare for their Lorien Stud in Taranaki.

Ron Hawker saw Cobs reintroduced to New Zealand but passed away in 1977 after a long illness. He bequeathed his beloved Cobs to The Welsh Pony & Cob Society of New Zealand.

As already mentioned, Woodlin Cyntaf returned to Glynmawr Stud, Woodlin Beau Brummel found his way to Bert and Verna Moore's Evermore Stud in Morrinsville where he stood at stud for the rest of his life.

The Council of the Society, in their wisdom maintained that Dafydd and Gay Girl must stay together as a pair as not to fragment the breed any further. Bert Moore, as President of the Society visited every member of the Society during a tour of New Zealand to make sure everyone agreed with the decision to sell Hewid Dafydd and Broughton Gay Girl also the colt foal Woodlin Rounull. The proceeds from the sale have been invested and the Interest has helped The Welsh Pony & Cob Society of New Zealand to continue in a prosperous manner thanks to those members of the time.

As a gesture the Hawker Medallion was struck, the medallions would be awarded, one for each Island, to the Champion at the Welsh Pony & Cob Shows, providing that there were six or more Cobs exhibited on the day.

The Medallion is awarded provided there are at least 6 Cobs entered and exhibited on the day.
