TACK AND ATTIRE

WENZ promotes Working Equitation as a sport for all riders across all disciplines. Therefore the types of attire allowed are broad and may include:

- Pony Club/Riding Club/WE Club Uniform
- English riding attire (ie jacket, breeches and boots/chaps/gaiters)
- Western riding attire
- Stock horse attire
- Traditional Portuguese/Spanish type attire
- Side-Saddle attire

All shirts must have sleeves (no tank tops/singlets) and long sleeves are preferred. Boots must be heeled and suitable for riding. Tack and attire should match wherever possible, for example, western saddle and bridle to go with western attire. Attire should be neat and tidy and workmanlike. Muted colours such as dark green, navy, and beige are preferred – remember you are going for the look of calmly working stock on a farm – not frightening them

TACK PROHIBITED EQUIPMENT

- To check if your tack and attire are allowable for the show, please refer to the Working Equitation New Zealand (WENZ) website and click on rulebook version 1.2. Alternatively contact WEM email prior to the show if you have any queries.

INSPECTION OF TACK AND ATTIRE

It is the responsibility of riders to ensure their tack and attire comply with the WENZ Rules.

Riders should address any questions regarding acceptability of tack and attire to the steward.

If violations of tack or attire are observed in the warm-up area by an official before the start of a phase, the rider may be permitted to adjust their tack and attire before the start of the phase provided it does not interfere with their ride time.

Gear Stewards appointed by competition management must check saddlery and inspect both sides of the horse at the beginning and conclusion of each phase.

This email also includes Ease of Handling Course Maps and hazards notices
