- Both days must be attended by the combination to be eligible for the Championship
- Championship and Reserves – the horse with the highest aggregate points will be the Championship winner.
- In the case of a tie, the highest average % over the 4 classes will be the winner. If still a tie, the highest score in the highest class will be the winner.

Competition Paddock and Arenas

The competition paddock and arenas are closed to all horses until the start of the competition on Saturday 29th November 2025 until 30 mins before the first competition horses are to enter the arena. All horses must enter the competition area via the gate from the paddock behind the RDA building.

Horse Identification, Venue, Yarding, Accommodation Conditions

- Approved Dressage NZ Horse/pony identification numbers must be worn on both sides at all times when warming up and competing and when being ridden – for non-grading classes, Dressage NZ numbers may be used or numbers will be allocated by the OC and can be collected from the office

- When not competing, it is compulsory that horses/ponies are identified with ID tags that include the responsible persons' name and mobile number – tags can be purchased from the office for $2
- All yards and areas around floats/trucks must be left properly mucked out/clean. All hay and manure must be collected by the person responsible and taken away. We have no area for disposal. Yards not mucked out will incur a $20 penalty. Please inform the office of any issues with yards. All breakages must be reported.
- Moving horses to unallocated yards is prohibited as is using yards without allocation or payment.
- Please keep the washdown bay clean at all times
- Due to restricted facilities and warm up area, ONLY HORSES COMPETING MAY ATTEND THE EVENT – NO EXCEPTIONS,
- No liability will be accepted by MTDG in the event of any accident or injury to horse, rider, spectator or property – Entry to event indicates the rider accepts MTDG terms and conditions, as well as the conditions listed on Evoevents. It is your responsibility to read and conform with these.
- MTDG retains the right to alter/cancel the program if and when necessary.
- MTDG retains the right to alter/combine classes if class numbers are low

*MTDG AIM TO RUN FUN, FRIENDLY, QUALITY DRESSAGE EVENTS FOR ALL RIDERS IF YOU HAVE ANY ENQUIRIES PLEASE CONTACT
HELEN 0212886789 OR E-MAIL ponymadfortoe@gmail.com*

Please read carefully

As we are a small club with limited yarding availability, we will endeavor to run the show under the following conditions:

- Yarding will be prioritized for people who are attending both days, with priority being given to members working at the show and competing and competitors who will be travelling over an hour and camping.
- If this applies to you, please indicate on your entry.
- There will be a camping fee of $10 for the duration of the show.
- Yard fees are $20 for duration of the show, or if space allows, $10/day for people attending only one day.
- Any yards' spare once camping allocation is full will be prioritized to members first then on an entry/payment date received basis.
- Our camping facilities are very limited. We have toilets but no showers. Also, no kitchen facilities.
- No temporary yarding will be permitted as per ESNZ rules.
- We will be selling food and drinks during the day.
- Help to pack up on the Sunday would be very much appreciated for competitors who are able
