Protocol/Have a Go Day, Saturday pm

A dressage protocol day is a relaxed, educational day where riders can gain confidence with their training. Class 1 allows you to try a test before a judge, receive immediate feedback, and then ride it, or parts of it again to improve the work or score. Unlike competitions, these sessions are training-focused, no formal attire, no public scoring or prizes, they are ideal for familiarisation with a new horse or rider, to practice a new level, or work on arena craft and technical issues.

You may wish to bring a young horse out for an experience and just have arena time by yourself for a confidence run, practice test ride for the following day, or simply gain exposure to a small, quiet amount of atmosphere, Class 2 is perfect for this. You may bring a lead horse and helper with you to have arena side if required, please enter details and ground fee payment on Evoevents.

Class 1: 20 Minutes in an arena with Dressage Canterbury judge.

Class 2: 20 minutes in an arena on your own.
