

GRACE POINT

The Heartbeat of Us Part 1: Go

Matthew 28:18-20

1. What was most memorable, challenging, or encouraging from the message this week?
2. If you could choose what your last words were going to be, what would they be?
3. Read Matthew 28:16-20. What does it communicate that this was one of the last things Jesus said on earth?
4. According to Matthew 28:16-20, what is the mission Jesus followers are called to? How are you currently engaged in this mission?
5. How can we maintain a sense of urgency in pursuing the mission we have been called to?
6. Read Acts 1:6-8. In light of the return of Jesus and the mission we are called to, what is your next step in getting on board with the mission?

MOVING FORWARD

Many of us approach missions with preconceived ideas. Some of us have sat in front of a slide projector presentation given by a missionary on a Sunday night. Others of us have been made to feel guilty for all the blessings we live with every day. Others have had statistic after statistic presented to us hoping that it would convince us to get involved. Others of us don't have any idea what missions is all about. Though we all come with different perspectives on missions, the goal is for us to embrace missions as a lifestyle characterized by one word: go. How will you "go" and become an everyday missionary?

CHANGING YOUR MIND

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Matthew 28:19-20
