It's The End Of The World As We Know It Part 2: How It All Ends

Matthew 24:1-14, 29-31;
Revelation 22:1-7, 12-15, 17

1. What was most memorable, challenging, or encouraging from the message this week?
2. If you had to guess what is going to happen to the human race, what's your prediction?
3. The scripture has a lot to say about how the world ends. What surprises you about what Jesus has to say about the end of the world in Matthew 24:1-14, 29-31?
4. Revelation 22: 1-7, 12-15, 17, 20 gives us a glimpse of the very end—the renewal of heaven and earth after the end of the world as we know it. What strikes you about the picture Jesus paints of what that time will be like?
5. The end of the world hinges on a choice, and Jesus invites us to choose him. Read Revelation 22 again and discuss Jesus' invitation and why anyone would want to reject it.
6. What, if anything, is holding you back from accepting Jesus' invitation to life and love?

MOVING FORWARD

This week, take some time to reflect personally on Jesus' invitation to make Him your Lord and Saviour. Feel free to discuss your choice with a close friend or family member. If you want to dig a little deeper in what it means to surrender your life to Jesus and follow Him, we have a resource we'd love to get to you. Send an e-mail to office@gptopeka.org letting us know you'd like a "What's Next?" guide, and we'll send you a copy. If you are a Christian, take some time to fully embrace what it means to trust the God who is sovereign over the future.

CHANGING YOUR MIND

"However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows."
