

CREATION VACATION Your Soul's Melody

Beaming Being is True Teaching

excerpt from Tanya von Zychlinsky's book 'How to Prepare for Creative Manifestation'

You are a MasterPEACE, and You have arrived... in perfect divine timing!
I am excited to cell-ebrate your LEGACY... as you dance to life what is SO YOU, attuned to Your Soul's Melody.

with reverence, oxo Tanya

Beaming Being is True Teaching

When we are in love and in connection, and have never experienced anything but that, then we can't truly consciously know the difference of how it feels to be out of love and disconnected. So, we chose the experience of being out of love and disconnected, for the sheer joy of expanding back into Love and remembering our Source again. In our old understanding we would have said, experiencing 'not being there' for the sheer joy of experiencing 'getting back there' (linear concept of lack). The experience of how it feels to not be in it is possible through being entirely in the mind, and the sheer joy of expanding and softening 'back' into being ONE with your pure essence and how the difference feels.

Think of this as two contrasting experiences! These are the 'two ends of the scale of true spiritual power and leadership: disempowerment and empowerment, co-dependency and co-creativity, with all kinds of nuances in between.

It's like two people, two aspects of the one consciousness, who pretend to be separate for the sheer ecstasy of coming back together. Had they always been together, they would not be able to experience the joy of getting together, of coming into UNION with themselves and the Beloved, because they would be oblivious to the natural state of bliss that they are in, even though they would enjoy it, but they would have never known any different. It's about experience. Here's an example...

Real Life Experience in Paradise

When I was on Kaua'i, Hawaii, for the first time, years back, as participant of a spiritual seminar, I took a swim in the pool by the seminar house, where a local couple was enjoying the sun, beaming with such love and deep connection, that words fail to describe it. They were glowing, and their eyes were glistening, and it felt like even their skin was glimmering with the light of that true Love beyond 'in-love-ness'. When they asked me, genuinely interested, what I had come to Kaua'i for, I enthusiastically set out to explain that we were having a spiritual seminar to 'bring back in the sacred feminine and come into Union with our Higher Self' (separation concept!).

Huge Aha!

Neither did these lovers judge nor could they understand what I was trying to explain to them, because as I listened to them share, they had never experienced being 'separate from Love/Spirit' or 'the sacred feminine', which they revere, so they could not imagine how one could be 'not in it' or 'try to return to it', because they had never 'lost it' in the first place. They had no such concept in their minds. I had such a huge Aha that day... and I felt very humbled, recognizing how 'important' I had felt in my 'spiritual quest to bring back the sacred feminine' and to 'teach it' (separation thinking, mind). Or, the 9 year old boy, who came with his little bike to the beach, asking me: "Why did you come here?" and I told him what I thought were 'reasons'. He just looked at me, smiled, and non-chalantly said: "I came here to BE..." then shrugged and hopped onto his bike, off to more adventures.

They were already BEING, what I was 'aiming to get to'.

The island was already teaching me so profoundly with great love through these two angels – through beaming being. I was the one receiving teaching from them through example and inspiration (not lecturing). They were born and raised within a giant garden of pure Love on sacred Kaua', who for Kaua'ians has a feminine Spirit. They lovingly call her Mama Kaua'i, because of the love and nourishing and lavish abundance that she provides. There's a reason, why Kaua'i is called Paradise and the Garden Island, because of and beyond the lush beauty, creativity, compassion, and splendour of this rainbow covered gem, the expression of absolute abundance, where sky kisses earth, and the mundane, the mystical, and the magical, merge. Here, you will feel the passion of volcano goddess Pele as well as your own higher being brimming with love, remembering that all that glory out there, reflects the bounty of the creative life force that also resides within, creating and re-creating you – and through you in loving collaboration with others.

I have to laugh compassionately at myself today, because it is so clear to me now, that I had been trying to 'bring milk to the cows'. I was so in my head and had all these concepts, but no matter how spiritual the concepts, your true Spirit can't accessed through the mind. And that was just the beginning of 8 years of powerful teachings that I gratefully received from and circulated with the island and her people. Never judging, always loving, kind, compassionate, and revealing, in paradise, where people 'aloha one another' (some of my Creation Vacations take place on Kaua'i. "Who She loves, She calls back or never lets go.")

I could tell you wondrous and wonder-filled true stories, but that will have to wait.

Aloha Ke Akua

Aloha Ke Akua means so much more than 'God is Love' in Hawaiian. The same as 'hula' is not just a dance, but a way of life. The island opened my consciousness to the 'miracles', magical being, and moments of pure bliss, which left no doubt of a Higher Power, a Higher Intelligence, a loving creative Life Force that looks out for us: The ONE LOVE.

My true Self emerged in pure creative Self-expression, opening my life to prosperity and true spiritual power and to some of the most amazing people I have met so far. This green tropical volcano island enchants with her luscious landscapes, magical mountains, waterfalls, rainbows, rivers, and oceans, and immerses into Love pure people with giant hearts, who honor the land as much as it honors them. A magical place, which certainly offers a lot to get you out of too much thinking and into your body and beaming being. The abundance of love and laughter, co-creativity and soul family, that I have experienced here will soon fill a book of its own. Sooo much divine blossoming. Experience turned expertise and it's my great joy to guide you into...

Being One with Your Soul's Melody

When you are ONE with Your Soul's Melody, fully attuned and melted into that Truth of your Higher Being, then the universe conspires with you to let things fall into place and people show up and synchronicity happen for you, because you remembered that the limitation you had, was just a construct in your human mind, a part of the illusion and the networking of limiting beliefs and conditioning in choir with the corresponding emotional responses. Energy is sound in hearticles and waves of wonder - and most of it, you can't even hear with human ears, but we all live in a giant symphony of synchrony with harmonies and discords. Some of it resonates and some sounds may not be in tune with our frequency. You may not hear it, but you can feel it. Matter is sound manifest. So, You literally can dance within the Melody. Don't leave this earth with your song still in you!

It's right here, in the midst of You!

Rather than pushing forward in an effort or setting an intention to where you wish to be in the future, or being 'reeled in' by your 'future Self' (all linear time!). You are melting inward into your Core, because Your higher being is already right here, right now. And at the same time you are remerging with that expanded field-of-feel-good. It's like leaning back within yourself, but it is really a release of tension and an opening. The melting inward is the sensation of surrender to just BEING YOU, with no attachments, no hardened walls. It's inner peace, love, joy, and appreciation filling and surrounding you. You just stop struggling and trying so hard to be who you're not.

It's like fully relaxing within a warm bath of energy that just IS. It's stable – like a giant bath full of warm water (just in energy)... ahhhh... and your body like a sponge soaks it all up, like lungs longing for air, filling themselves into balance.

You are that expanded field, that energy inside: stable and calm, a sound, always moving invisibly but tangibly, while you are also moving inside 'it'. It is right here, in the midst of You... all of You. Your Heart of hearts. Your giant Field-of-Feel-Good. The natural field is the giant Field-of-Feel-Good. That's the BALANCE. The ocean when it's calm. And there are also energy currents within it, some soft, some rolling, others like rip tides. Hearticles and waves of wonder, waves of energy in motion, moving as e-motion, but the field itself doesn't go anywhere. It is a movement within the bigger field. Like with warmer or colder currents of water within a body of water, and you inside it – and it within you. The ocean wave is temporarily a unique individual (big or small, fresh or feisty) while at the same time being that part of the ocean and each droplet within it. The ocean is as much within the wave as the wave is within the ocean. It's the same with energy, just less wet.

Your Soul is the driver, with the body as the Super Star Car and your physical personality with its mind is the cell-ebrated celebrity co-pilot! You shall e-merge more fluidly as ONE.

Our Bodies Are Permeable To Energies

They are at the same time energy 'in-dense-ified' (intensified into density, more dense-ity, more matter, less dense-ity, more energetic). You are not separate from the energies that you are living in and that at the same time live in you and move through you (imagine a sifter, sieve, or sponge), even though sometimes, it may feel like you are separate, when you are too much in your head, but you never are. Neither from those energies nor from others whose energy in motion (e.motion) also 'colors or flavors or intonates' the bigger energy field, the collective. So, how you run and clogg or clear your energy, matters. Your Soul's Melody enriches the bigger Symphony!

Thinking cannot feel, and it needs past or future to relate to and make logical connections and meaning, while your physical and emotional body are the 'sense-ors', they feel in the present moment (fresh feeling needs present moment awareness).

Otherwise, you just feel retriggered emotions that are picking up old sensations from memory in collaboration with old thoughts, creating the same old, same old. Energetically speaking, You are that expanded FIELD: So is everyone else. You are that specific expression as that part of the field, others are that specific expression, like two arms who seem to not be connected with each other, but are, as part of the bigger body. It is right here, in the midst of You... all of You. Your Heart of hearts.

The natural state of energy in balance is the giant Field-of-Feel-Good!

That's the balance. That's where Your Soul's Melody resides. When you feel that, you know, you are fully attuned to it, that blissful feeling of silken peaceful warmth and loving contentment is your Soul-o-meter. There are also energy currents within your body, created in response to your thoughts and to what your senses pick up within and around: Energy in motion, moving as e-motion, flowing within the energy field and through all bodies, but the field itself doesn't go anywhere. It's a movement within the bigger field. Like with warmer or colder currents of water within a body of water, and you inside it – and it within you. Energy does matter... matter is energy gone dense... through laser focus. The bigger energy, this higher Intelligence is really what touches you deeply when you feel it. It is what moves you. Living life surrendered to it, allows you to be on angelic autopilot.

Being on Angelic Autopilot

Have you ever found yourself in a store, walking over to the 'Immune Booster or Natural Remedy section' and without even thinking about it, place some of these natural boosters into your cart, then check out – when there seemed to be no immediate need for that, because you and your Loved Ones are all fit and well?

Then the very next day, you feel unwell, or your Loved One comes home with symptoms of a heavy cold. You smile... you're grateful your intuition did the shopping for you, because you can now easily nip 'the ailment' in the bud. This happened to me, exactly like that! There was no 'listening to the intuition and then taking inspired action'. I was on angelic autopilot, naturally moving about, no thought involved at all, just me being moved by Love doing the shopping.

Now, there's no way that your mind could have anticipated this, but your higher being KNOWS. It's not 'someone else taking over', it is your higher You leading you, you essence moving you. You dropping into your giant Field-of-Field-Good, stopping the struggle to be anything but that. Yes, yes, YES!

Soul Level Creating and Relating

Happy Inner Wedding Day!

Amazing movement and opening is happening inside you, already now as you are reading this... because You have invited it and are empowering it. That's synchronicity. Your body and your soul feel sooo great about this inner marriage and the release of your busy-ness:

"Your Soul knows your contract, knows how and when, your mind doesn't have a clue. No one else can be who you are, nor do your gifted do!" There is such mesmerizing magnitude in your higher Self-Expression that it is beyond words to describe. Watch, what happens, when you trust... and allow it through.

In Closing...Before We Meet Soon!

Weren't you a little bored lately with your usual way of living? Just a little? That's a sign you're ready for NEW adventures. That's when your soul is eager to expand and explore new territory, creativity and sense-ualities. That's when all that's 'old' has already been integrated, savored, and sampled. Boredom and curiosity brought you to your solid soul decision to discover more about the truth of YOU. It's why you are here, coming home.

More than success, money, or 'getting there', what most people are deeply longing for now is to experience being ONE again. That purity of heart and childlike innocence, that feeling when you are one with your playful Spirit expressing and experiencing itself through you. I am exhilarated to be witness and guidance to this next part of your adventure. It is my privilege to hold space and whisper inspiration to the truth of You at this magical moment in time. I feel deeply touched, knowing that You have arrived!

Trust that where Love leads you is amazing!!

Something totally magical is in store for you. Watch for synchronicity and prepare for random miracles, because you now are dedicating space, time, love, nourishment and energy to let your own higher being come through you. Wouldn't you just LOVE to have a few hours, a day, or even an entire week to just play, cheered on by someone who so 'gets' you? Claim your space, where you can dream, vision, and vacation... maybe on a Creation Vacation? During our time together, you will discover a playful way to take stock and see what you have previously explored, which creative higher Self-expression is eager to bubble out, and to adjust and align into what's more and more sacred to you. A full immersion!

Now, have fun bathing in your prosperity of preparations, so we can dive deeper during your sessions via skype – or go on a hike on Kaua'i ;-)) ? Wouldn't that be so FUN?!

No hard work, just play, play, play and being free, to let your Dreamer anchor things and dance to your soul's melody. Your playful assignments will organically evolve, as inspired. I love custom-designing Playgrounds for Experience, because, if you're anything like me, you're a pretty free Spirit and don't like to feel confined to narrow programs or schedules, or feeling stuck indoors all day. Love being in nature and create your dreams? Me too! After all, there's fun to be had and playful Spirit to be expressed in the flow of things as they are now, and rigid programs can't accommodate that freedom, that sense of magical being, that delicious divine design, the moment of marvel and soul surprise.

That's why Creation Vacations are quite spontaneous. Some people book a year ahead of time, and I admire that they can do that, but I wouldn't know that far in advance how I'd feel, where I'd be, and what I would love to experience a year from now. Would you? In a year, you will no longer be the same person. That's why I enjoy staying flexible while still savoring a good permeable foundation. That's pure vibrancy for me – and I want that for you, too, if this resonates. I LOVE exploring enchanted environments and hosting heavenly events for you, bringing together what I would have loved to find, but haven't seen offered anywhere. So, when it's not 'out there', it's time to create it... and I have!

Our time together will help you very fast to unpeel your truth, your dreams, and your desires. No worries, you will totally LOVE it, because it is custom designed to what is SO YOU and what you so love, love, love!! My work with you is to shed light onto your truth and treasures, even just through this gift of inspiration, the words you are reading with the energy of love pouring through, so you can clearly see what's SO YOU, and just let go of what is not that. I will always lead you back into You and your own inner wise Self, while I am reflecting back to you the intuition and higher mind wisdom that you're open to hear.

This is about experience, exploration, and exhilaration:

Welcome to a World of Wonder and PLAY!

You'll have plenty of FUN, because Your playful higher being is co-directing this adventure with me, and it knows you better than your physical personality does. There's great power in playfulness, the foundation for creative manifestation – and that's the real reason why you're here, right? Creative manifestation and being ONE...

FUN and totally magical.
