

STAFF PERSONAL REFLECTION JOURNAL

Going Deeper

Try and find a quiet place such as the school chapel and, after watching the video, capture your thoughts on the following questions:

Q# 1

When did the Catholic faith first start to impact you and become part of your life? How did you get to that point and how did it change you?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

"Every Christian must be a living book wherein one can read the teaching of the gospel. This is what Saint Paul says to the Corinthians, 'Clearly you are a letter of Christ which I have delivered, a letter written not with ink, but by the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of flesh in the heart.'

St. Joseph of Leonessa

Q# 2

Do you ever talk about Jesus or God in your conversations with other people? Why or Why not? How do you think you can bring up God in your daily life and relationships?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Going Deeper

What actions and behaviours do you think mark how a Catholic should act and behave? Is it obvious to the people that you meet that you're a Catholic by how you live?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Try to find a practical way this week to communicate to a student about their value in the eyes of God. Keep in mind this week that your vocation is vital to the formation of young people and is of great service to God's formation of them.

“Many, many people hereabouts are not becoming Christians for one reason only: there is nobody to make them Christians.”

St. Francis Xavier