Try and find a quiet place such as the school chapel and, after watching the video, capture your thoughts on the following questions:

Q# 1

What examples from the Gospels of Jesus' countercultural and radical love most resonate with you? Why?

[illegible]

Q# 2

What do you think it means to love others as Jesus has loved us? What do you think that it requires from you to do this?

“The proof of love is in the works. Where love exists, it works great things. But when it ceases to act, it ceases to exist.”

Pope St Gregory I

How has God given you grace in the past to love others? Why do you think that we need God's grace to love as Jesus loved?

This week, take some time to read over some of the passages in the Gospels that showcase Jesus' perfect love for people. Reflect on what makes Jesus' love so countercultural and radical. Set aside some time to journal your reflections and ask God for the grace to live out this kind of love in your own life.

“Without love, deeds,
even the most brilliant,
count as nothing.”

St. Therese of Lisieux
