

STAFF PERSONAL REFLECTION JOURNAL

Going Deeper

Try and find a quiet place such as the school chapel and, after watching the video, capture your thoughts on the following questions:

Q# 1

Who has been a type of missionary to you in your life? Is there a person who moved toward you when you felt lost in some way? Who were they and what do you recall of that experience?

This image shows a single page of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, leaving small margins at the top and bottom. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

Q# 2

In what ways can you say that God has moved toward you in your life? What experiences or memories do you have that remind you of his faithfulness?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Christ is the Morning Star, who, when the night of this world is past,
gives to his saints the promise
of the light of life,
and opens everlasting day.

Going Deeper

Where has your faith felt under attack? In what ways can it be difficult to be a Christian in modern life?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Make a decision this week to express your faith in a more deliberate or even missionary way. How can you reveal the person of Jesus to your non-Christian friends? How can you 'go toward' someone who seems to be having a hard time? How can you be a missionary in the modern world?

I was no longer the centre of my life and therefore I could see God in everything.
