Try and find a quiet place such as the school chapel and, after watching the video, capture your thoughts on the following questions:

Q# 1

Where have you experienced God this past week? What people, encounters or experiences may have been moments where God was moving in your life?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Q# 2

How present is the Holy Spirit in your daily life? How do you feel about the Holy Spirit? How does the person of the Holy Spirit shape your work?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

The Christian does not think God will love us because we are good, but that God will make us good because He loves us.

Going Deeper

Who is the hardest person to love in your school community right now? What is it about them that impacts you? What might be the invitation here?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slight shadow on the right side, suggesting it's resting on a surface.

Spend some time this week in the chapel reflecting upon the concept of the value and dignity of each human person in your school community. Who is overlooked? Who is not seen to be as valuable as others? Ask the Holy Spirit to show you how he wants you care for people in the coming week.
