

THE OUTLINE

PART 2

WHEN TO BEGIN TALKING WITH YOUR KIDS

Make it developmentally and age appropriate

- God Made Your Body (ages 3-5)

- How God Makes Babies (ages 6-9)

- The Purity Code (age 10+)

- Talk about EVERYTHING (age 14+)

TEENAGERS TODAY ARE ASKING QUESTIONS... HERE ARE JUST A FEW THAT WE'VE HEARD...

- How far is too far?
- Is it possible to get the pill without your parents knowing?
- How often do married people usually have sexual intercourse?
- Is oral sex ok?
- How do girls masturbate?
- At what age do boys have their first erection?
- When is a girl's most dangerous time of the month? Is the pill expensive? Is the pill dangerous?
- What types of STDs are there?
- I'm afraid of AIDS. What can I do to not get it?
- If you participate in oral sex, are you still a virgin?
- Will God condemn you if you have premarital sex? Or will He forgive you?
- What can a guy do if he has a problem of lust toward other guys? How can you handle it without having to be gay?
- Does God forgive Christians who have had abortions?
- After someone has been sexually abused and hasn't told anyone about it, and it has gone on for about five years, how can someone try to forget and deal with it?
- What is God's view of homosexuality?
- My boyfriend wants me to send him photos of me naked via Snapchat. Is that wrong?

PERSONAL & GROUP REFLECTION

PART 2

REFLECTION QUESTIONS:

1. What are your thoughts on talking about sex education and your child's body at a much earlier age than many people actually do? What is the positive side of talking about sex at a developmentally and age-appropriate time period?
2. Do you agree or disagree with Jim that it's important to talk about issues like sexual systems, the Purity Code and even pornography as early as 10 years old?
3. Have you developed a plan or used a resource that has been helpful to your job of presenting healthy sex education to your kids?
4. As Jim went through the questions he was asked by teenagers, which question brought you the most interest?
5. Are there any questions that Jim mentioned that you would not talk to your kids about from his list? Which of the questions would give you the most trouble talking with your kids about?
