

Invest in Life Assets and Get Unexpectedly Awesome Return

What's Life Asset?

Life Asset will produce:

- time saving
- increased effectiveness
- time and care from others

So you will have these results:

- do more with less effort
- more time to do the things that matter to you

Example 1:

Invest in Education

When you learn about stock investment through a course or seminar, you will be able to spot great companies in less time and effort.

Example 2:

Invest in Health

If you are healthy and fit, you have less "down time", or sick time. If you are not fat, you feel more energetic and even walk faster. Being more active is also a way to increase productivity.

Example 3:

Invest in Relationship

When you have good relationship with someone, there is less time spent on arguing. You even get more cooperation. Some influential people that have good relationship with you will be acting as a leverage for you to get more done easily, to overcome the obstacle for you, and to give you more opportunities when you are ready with the capability.
