Quiz: Developmental Stages

Identify the Developmental Stage indicated by the phrase or sentence.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Stage</th>
<th>Stage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Autonomy vs. Shame and Doubt</td>
<td>Industry vs. Inferiority</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Concrete Operational Stage</td>
<td>Initiative vs. Guilt</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ego Integrity vs. Despair</td>
<td>Intimacy vs. Isolation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Formal Operational Stage</td>
<td>Preoperational Stage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Generativity vs. Stagnation</td>
<td>Sensorimotor Stage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Identity vs. Stagnation</td>
<td>Trust vs. Mistrust</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. ____________A 2-year-old boy has control over personal and physical skills and a sense of independence.

2. ____________A 4-year-old boy says, “Mom must like grilled cheese because I like grilled cheese.”

3. ____________Failure of this stage, after age 65, results in little connection to others and a sense of uselessness.

4. ____________A 12-year-old boy can think hypothetically and use logic to problem-solve.

5. ____________This stage forms the foundation for the rest of development by creating a sense of security between the infant and caregiver.

6. ____________A 20 year old is forming relationships with others, which is important in this stage.

7. ____________A peer group is important in this stage to develop a 12-year-old child’s self-esteem.

8. ____________A 3-year-old child thinks the sidewalk is mad at him because it made him fall.

10. ____________A 13-year-old girl can think about abstract concepts.

11. ____________Failure of this stage, after age 18 months, can result in wariness or a dependency on others.
12. _______________A 10-year-old child can look at multiple aspects of a problem in order to solve it.

13. _______________Failure of this stage, after age 3, results in feeling hesitant of one’s own abilities.

14. _______________A 10-month-old child recognizes that certain events cause other events.

15. _______________Failure of this stage, after age 6, can result in feelings of self-blame and difficulties setting future goals.

16. _______________A 16 year-old asks the question, “Who am I?”

17. _______________A 7-year-old child can put sticks in order by height.

18. _______________A 75-year-old man states, “I feel accomplished with the life that I have lived.”

19. _______________Failure of this stage, after age 18, results in a weakened sense of self.

20. _______________A 9-month-old child searches for a toy underneath a blanket.

21. _______________The psychosocial task of a 5 year-old during this stage is to set goals without infringing on others rights.

22. _______________Failure of this stage, after age 40, leads to feeling lonely and excluded.

23. _______________A 6-year-old child feels a sense of pride and competence by beginning school.

24. _______________An 80-year-old woman views her life as unproductive or with many regrets resulting in feelings of hopelessness.