Grab a friend's crayon.

Sneak a piece of candy.

Give someone a turn on the slide.

Say "please" and "thank you."

Say: "You are my friend."

Listen when others talk.

Cry: "I don't want to!"

Wiggle and giggle when it's time to be quiet.

Pick up your toys.

Hug a friend who is sad.

ADAM AND EVE'S CHOICE

GENESIS 2:15-17; 3

God created a beautiful garden called Eden for Adam to live in. (Adam was the first person God made.) God told Adam to work in the garden and watch over it. God told Adam he could eat from any of the trees in the garden except for one tree. God told Adam he could not eat from this special tree.

Later God made a woman, Eve, to be with Adam in the garden. Eve was to help Adam. Both Adam and Eve were to not eat from the special tree. That was God's instruction.

One day Eve decided to eat fruit from the special tree even though she knew God said to not do that. Eve even gave some fruit from the tree to Adam to eat.

As soon as Adam and Eve ate the fruit from the special tree, they knew they had made a wrong choice. They had broken God's instruction. They had disobeyed God.

God was not happy about this. God said to Adam and Eve, "Did you eat fruit from the special tree? What is this you have done?"

Eve tried to explain how she made the bad choice.

Then God told Adam and Eve that no longer would they be allowed to live in the beautiful garden.
