

Where Can You Talk about Jesus?

INSTRUCTIONS: Jesus' followers taught people about Jesus wherever they went. Circle the pictures of places where you can tell others about Jesus.

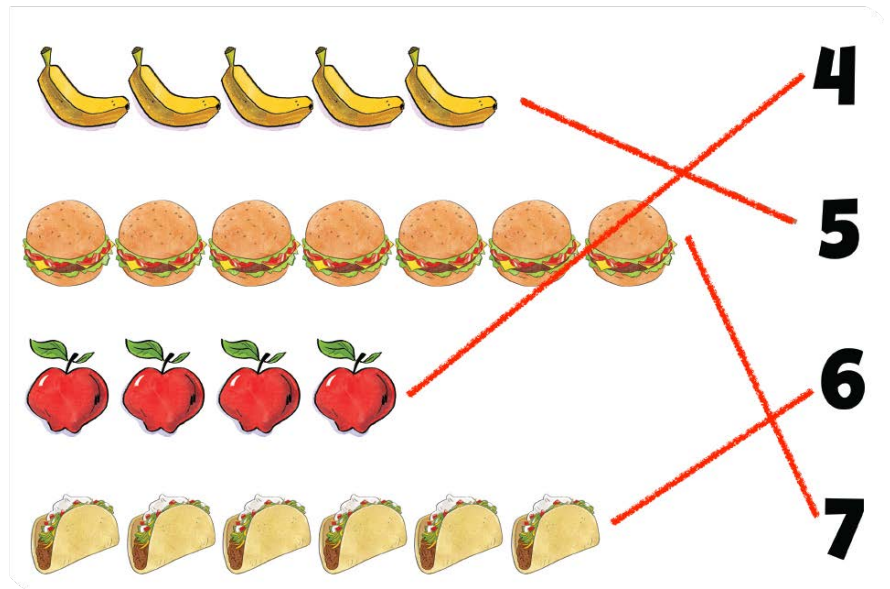

Finish the Picture

INSTRUCTIONS: Stephen taught others about Jesus by starting from the Old Testament. Trace the dashed lines to finish the picture.

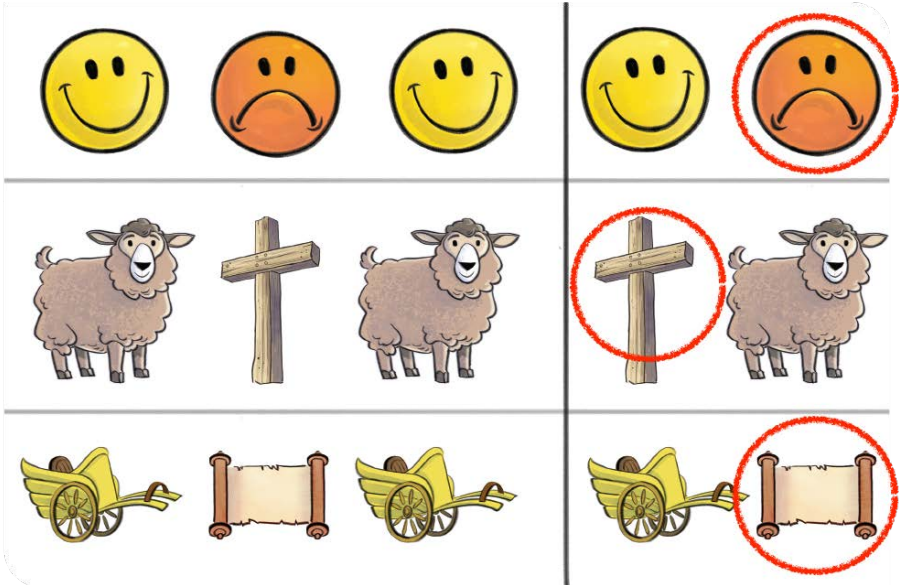

Count to 7

INSTRUCTIONS: The church chose seven leaders to do special jobs. Draw a line from each number on the left to the food items on the right.

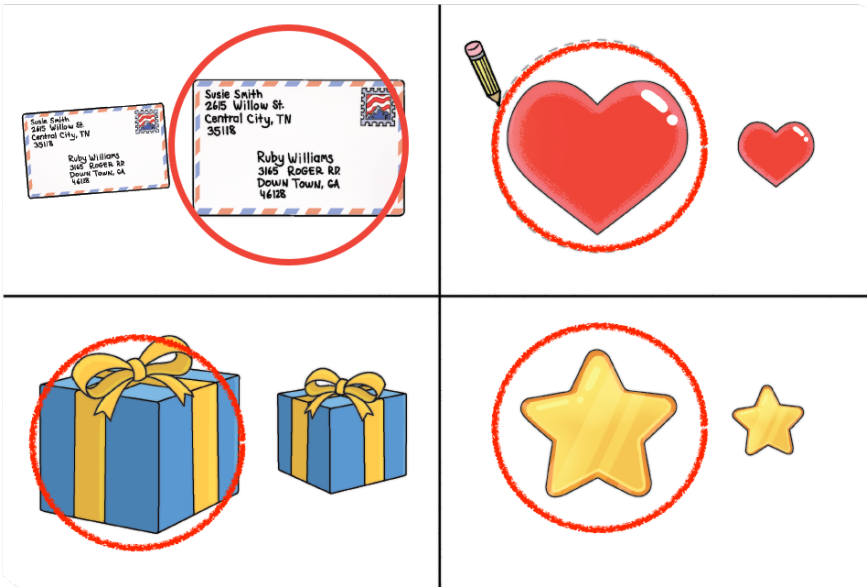

What Comes Next?

INSTRUCTIONS: Philip met a man and told him about Jesus. In each row of pictures, circle the picture on the right that comes next in the pattern.

Circle the Big Pictures

INSTRUCTIONS: Paul wrote letters to thank his friends for visiting him in prison. For each pair of items, circle the bigger picture.

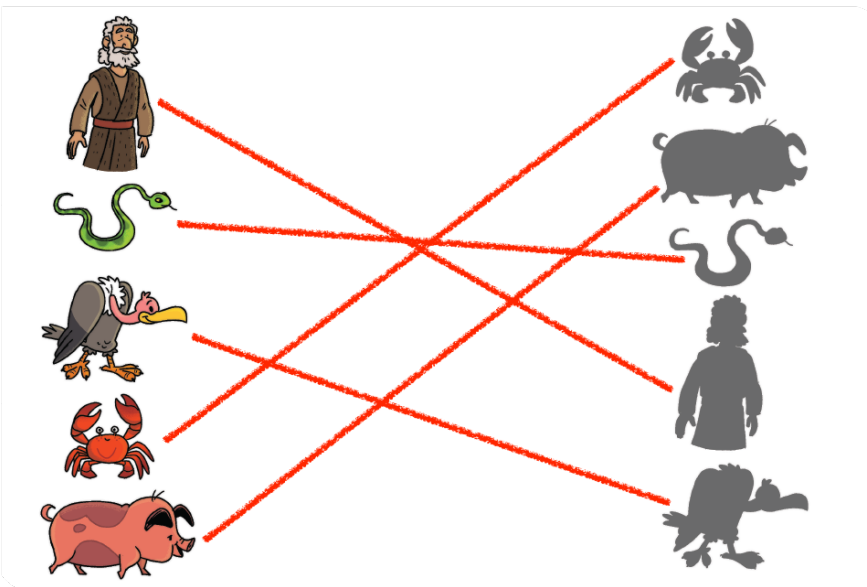

Follow the Path

INSTRUCTIONS: God's Spirit gave Peter power to do miracles. Follow the path to get Peter to Aeneas and to Dorcas.

Match to the Shadows

INSTRUCTIONS: While Peter was in the city, he had the same vision three times. Match the pictures to their shadows to remind you what Peter saw.

Circle the Hearers

INSTRUCTIONS: The gospel is for everyone. Circle the pictures showing people hearing the good news about Jesus.

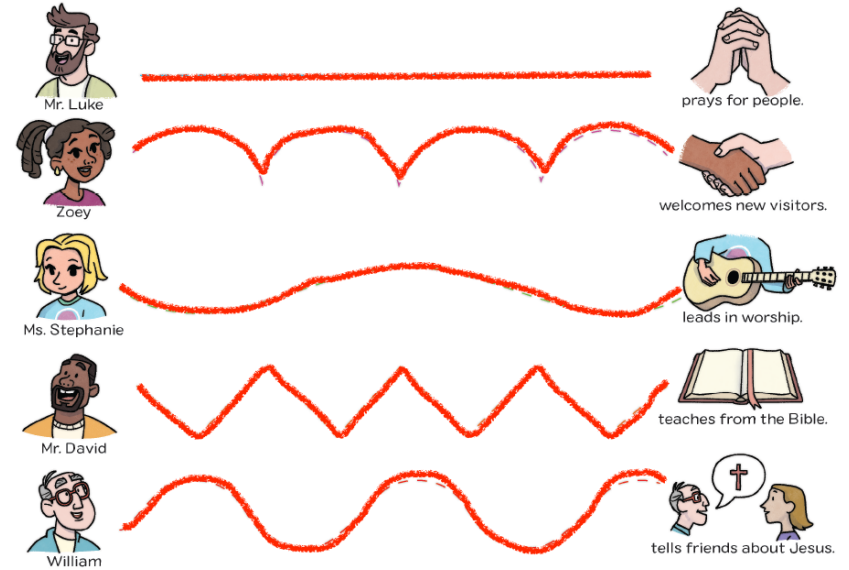

Find Things That Start with P

INSTRUCTIONS: The church prayed for Peter while he was in prison. Circle all the things you see in the picture that start with the letter P.

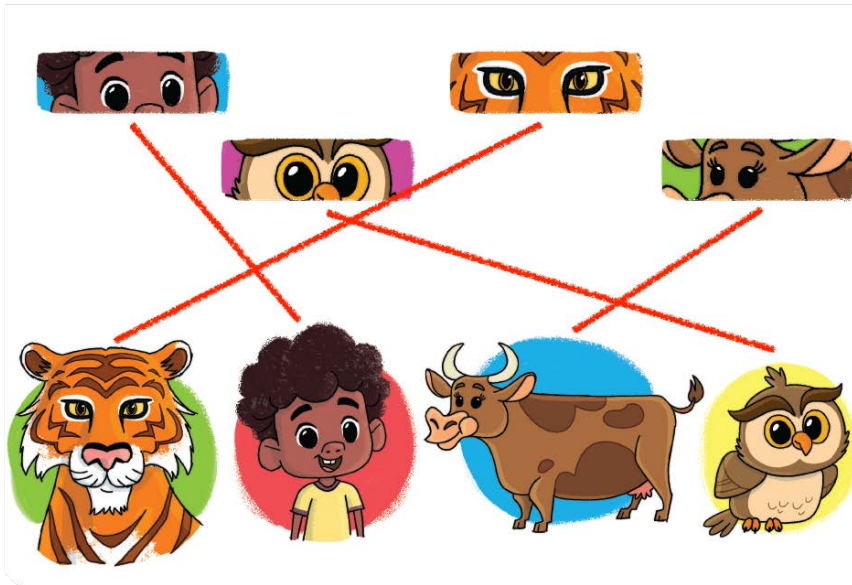

Tell How People Help at Church

INSTRUCTIONS: Paul said people in the church work together. Trace each line and tell how some people can help at church.

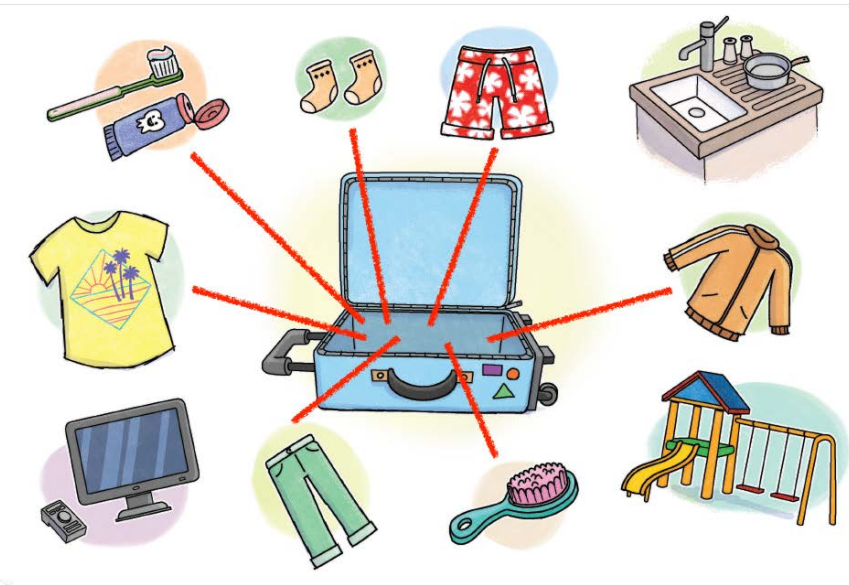

Match the Eyes

INSTRUCTIONS: Paul could not see after a very bright light came down from heaven. Draw a line to match the eyes to whom they belong.

Select Items for a Trip

INSTRUCTIONS: Paul and Barnabas traveled to tell the good news about Jesus. Draw a line from the suitcase to items you would pack for a trip.

Circle People You Can Tell

INSTRUCTIONS: God loves us, and He wants us to tell people about Jesus. Circle the pictures of people you can tell about Jesus.
