When it's very cold outside, they have to fill a pool with warm water so the people don't freeze when they are getting baptized!

Sometimes people walk together to the water to celebrate with friends who will be baptized in the waves.

An inflatable swimming pool makes a good place for baptisms, when you don't live around water.

Some baptisms have to be done in secret, like in someone's bathroom.

Even in a muddy river, people can be baptized to show that Jesus makes us clean by forgiving our sins.
