Eric (age 17): This was Eric's first mission trip to another country, though he had been on several mission trips in the U.S. He likes building, fixing things, and doing work that supports the group.

Olivia (age 21): She is the oldest child in the family. This was her fourth international mission trip. Olivia is planning to be an elementary school teacher, so she loves working with kids.

Adam (age 19): Adam studied a lot of Spanish in high school, so he is a great translator and enjoys going to Spanish-speaking countries. He had a broken ankle when he went to Ecuador, but it didn't stop him from playing with the kids!

Leslie (mom): Leslie was born in South Korea where her parents were missionaries. She loves traveling to new countries and teaching the Bible.

Ben (dad): Ben is a pastor and he is very good at explaining the gospel and teaching people about the Bible. But he also enjoys serving others on a mission trip.

Vika [VEE-kah] (age 19): Vika was adopted from Central Asia, so she has a special place in her heart for kids in orphanages. She is very good at leading activities for children.

Spanish is the main language.

Missionaries study Spanish so they can communicate the stories of Jesus.

Soccer is the most popular sport.

Missionaries hold sports camps and invite athletes.

Favorite foods are plantains, empanadas, and even guinea pig.

Missionaries try new foods as they make a home in a new culture.

Ecuador has big cities, mountains, and jungles.

Missionaries get used to many different locations where the people and travel are very unique.

Some people have heard of Jesus, but they don't follow Him. Others have never heard of Jesus.

Missionaries want all people to know the truth of the Bible and how to have eternal life with Jesus.
