

Josh and Sarah Cook with daughter Evie
Church Planters in Denver, Colorado

Chris Phillips, his wife, Libby, and their four children
Church planters in Denver, Colorado

The Dubale Family
Church Planters in Denver, Colorado

Cicero Washington (C.W.) Pruitt
Missionary to Northern China from 1881-1936

C.W. and Anna Pruitt
Missionaries to Northern China

C.W. Pruitt (center) with Dr. Jesse Boardman Hartwell, and the students of the first regular class of the North China Training School.

David, Regina, Cruz, and Ben White
Missionaries to Antigua, Guatemala

The quetzal bird lives in the highlands of Guatemala. They are the national bird of Guatemala and symbolize liberty. They appear on the Guatemala flag, postage stamps, money, and souvenirs for the country. The quetzals are considered one of the most beautiful birds on earth with their brilliant green outer color, red underparts, and long tail feathers that extend twice the length of the bird itself.

David, Regina, Cruz, and Ben White
Missionaries to Antigua, Guatemala