

Ewa Gosal was called to the Ontario Bar in June 2019.

Ewa works as a Competition Law Officer with the International Affairs Directorate of the Competition Bureau, Canada, and is the Chair of the International Law Section of the Canadian Bar Association (CBA). Previously, she worked as a lawyer at the Ontario Legal Information Centre, run by the Association of French Speaking Jurists of Ontario (AJEFO) and articulated at a boutique law firm in Ottawa.

Ewa completed the Juris Doctor National Program in common law and the Equivalency of the Québec Bar in civil law, both at the University of Ottawa.

Prior to arriving to Canada, she worked with the Canadian Embassy in Pakistan, the Directorate-General for Competition of the European Commission in Belgium, and the Legal Department of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) and in private sector in Austria.

Ewa holds a Master in Law degree from the Panthéon-Assas University (Sorbonne University) and a Bachelor's Law degree from the Robert Schuman University in France.

In her free time, she serves as the treasurer of the Parent Council of the Polish School in Ottawa.