

Teisha Mattison was called to the Ontario Bar in 2019. She also did the Law Practice Programme at the University of Ottawa.

Teisha works as a Competition Law Officer with the International Affairs Directorate of the Competition Bureau, Canada. The directorate fosters relationships with international partners to advance the Bureau's enforcement priorities and coordinates international efforts to promote competitive markets and competition law enforcement. Teisha works on trade negotiations and other files.

Prior to joining the Competition Bureau, she worked as a staff lawyer with Legal Aid Ontario from 2019 – 2022. She advised and represented clients in all areas of legal clinic practice and appeared before the various Ontario provincial and the Federal Courts and Tribunals in housing, employment, human rights, civil litigation and other matters.

She has also practised law in Jamaica with a focus on regulation, telecommunications and broadcasting issues at the Broadcasting Commission.

Teisha has extensive experience with trade law and trade negotiations working at the World Trade Organization on intellectual property issues as well as in the area of technical assistance.

Teisha holds a Master of Laws degree from the Yokohama National University in Yokohama, Japan and a Bachelor of Laws from the University of the West Indies, Barbados.