Handwriting practice lines consisting of solid top and bottom lines with a dotted midline, repeated 10 times for writing the story.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of 15 sets of three horizontal lines (top solid, middle dashed, bottom solid).

Making Comparisons

One of the reasons that Sarah loves her boots is the way they look. "They were as shiny as a wet slicker and as yellow as a bathtub duck." When we share our special stories with other people we often compare things to help people understand us better. Practice making your own comparisons.

It was as loud as

They were soft like

He was as red as

Making Size Comparisons

How do you change a word so that you can use it to compare sizes? You add different endings to the words. Let's look at how adding the endings "er" and "est" change the meaning of the words and help you compare things. The first one is done for you.
