Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

There are those who say to you - we are rushing this issue of civil rights. I say we are 172 years late.

- Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey

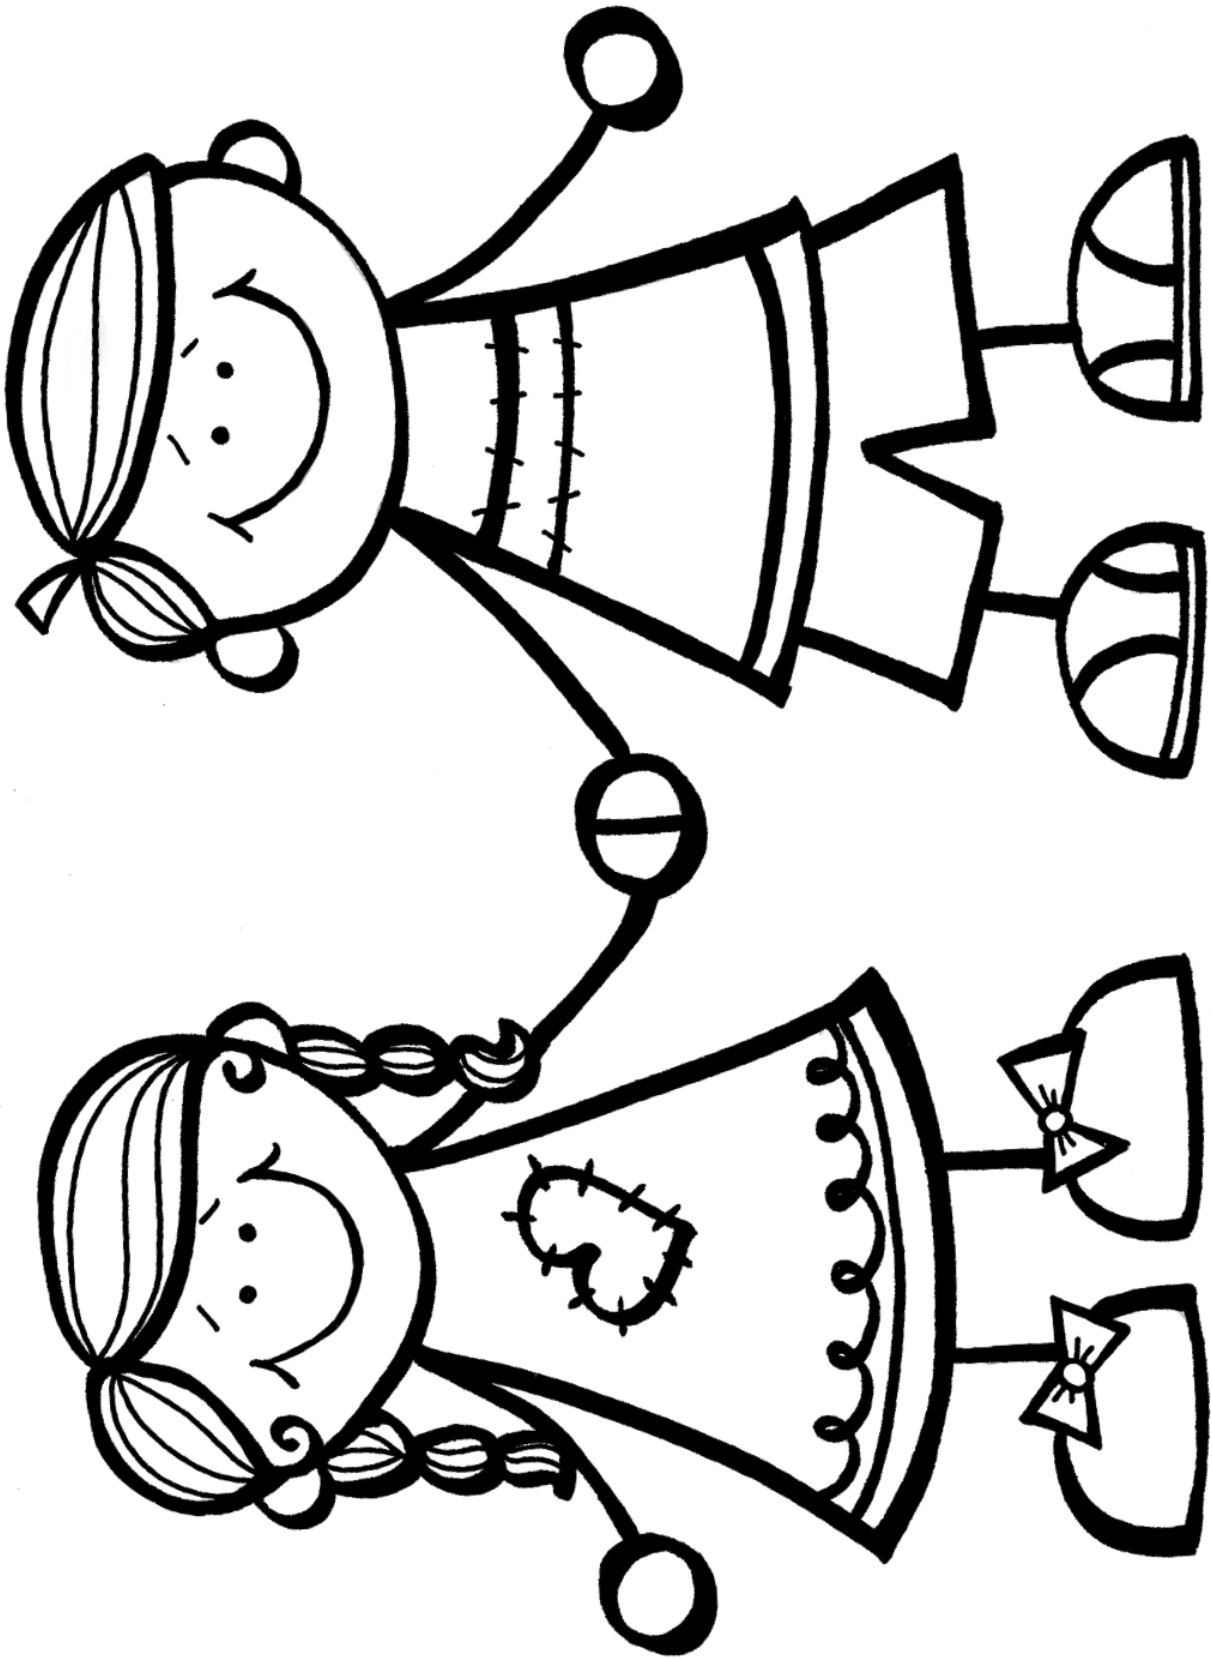

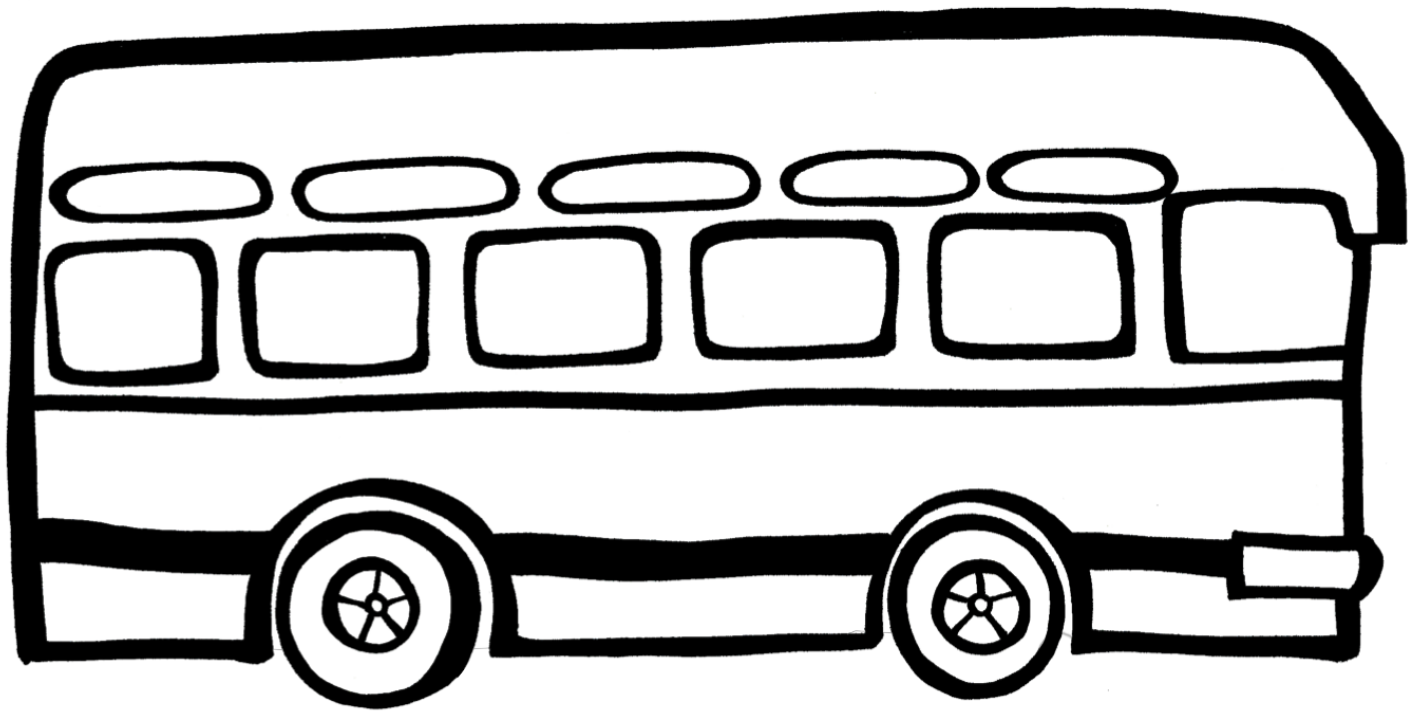

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize on December 10, 1964.

Live in peace
with one another.

Romans 12:18

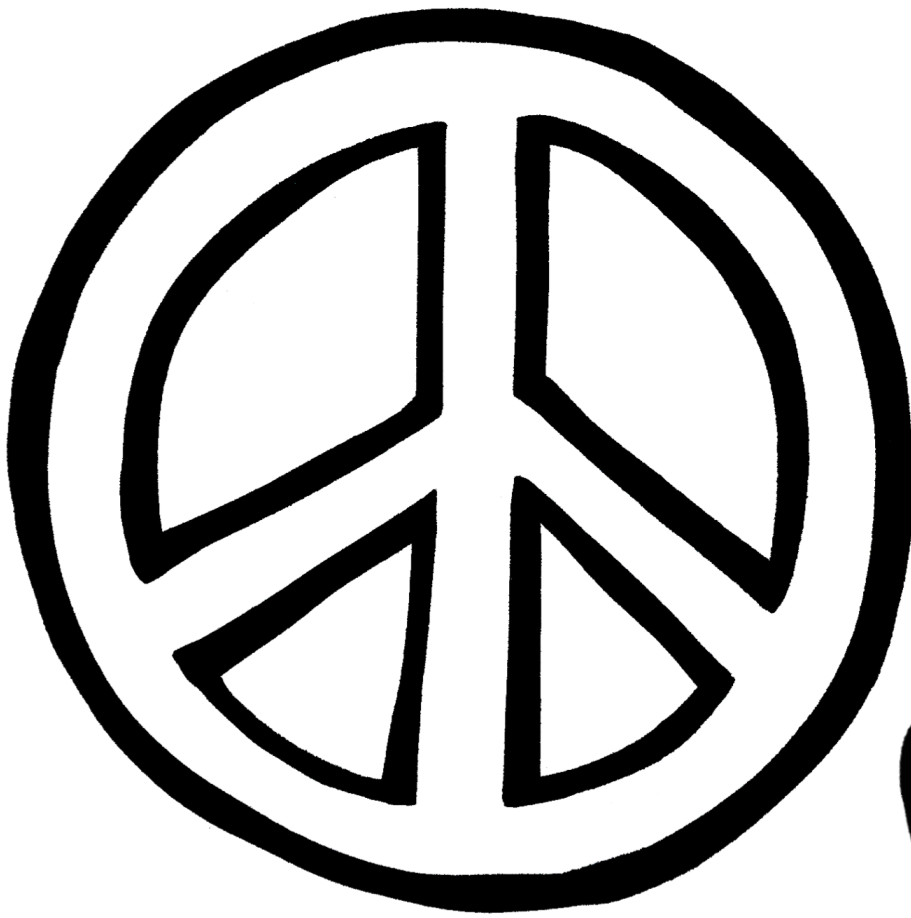

Rosa Parks refused to give up her seat in the colored section of a public bus to a white passenger when the white section was full. She was arrested and found guilty of a crime. Her bravery led to a citywide boycott and eventually the end of segregation in public places and transportation throughout the United States.

The United States Congress called her “the first lady of civil rights.”

Love is the key to the problems of our world.

- Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

PEACE

Let freedom ring.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.
