THE WHITE HOUSE

May 17, 1991

Dear Pat,

This is just a note to tell you that the invitation to my luncheon in honor of the Ladies of the Senate-- Wednesday, June 12th at noon at the White House--is on its way to you. It would be a great pleasure if it were possible for you to join us.

With highest hopes and all best wishes,

Warmly,

Barbara

In response to Mrs. Bush's 1/17/80 note to Les Nixon inviting her to lunch with children & grandchildren

Dear Barbara,

You were ever so kind to invite me to bring the children and grandchildren
to the White House for lunch
May I ask for a raincheck until Melanie (Julie's youngest) is old enough to savour along with the others the history, beauty and hospitality.

Julie and Harriet gave rare reviews of their evening with you. As you may have gathered they are enthusiastic fans!

With gratitude for your constant thoughtfulness
and best wishes as always,
Everately,
Pat

Dear Pat -

Jeane and I so loved seeing David and Julie last night.
They were wonderful touring the White House and telling stories.
It got me thinking that it would be so nice if you would bring Julie and Tricia and all their children back
to the White House for lunch
one day and then they could,

would be such a treat for us.

I am going to ask Susan Porter Rose to call you and see if there is a date that would be good for you. Please say yes.

Dear Pat, I can't tell you how much George and I loved being at the Library opening. I am still thinking about the clean lines of the building, the reflecting pool and the flowers.

Dear Pat,

George and I want to wish you the happiest of birthdays ... and many, many more.

I think of you often as I walk through these rooms you know so well -- especially when I pass your lovely portrait. You are a shining example to us all of grace and graciousness both, and we will always hold you in our minds and hearts. Happy birthday!

Warmly,

Barbara

Dear Julie -

Thank you so very much for joining us last night. It really was such a fun relaxed evening for us. I hope you know the great affection the Burles feel for you and David.

I love the little bathing suit even and will really use it at Camp David. Here

Dear Mrs. Gurn,

How moved I was by the remarks you made about Bishop, which were reported on the excellent New York Times profile Sunday. Although I realize you are inundated with mail, deceptions, and - of course - the move, I simply had to express my admiration for your discernment and integrity and, I might add, courage. For it takes tremendous courage to enter wholeheartedly into public life as you

Dear Pat,

The most lovely luncheon given by our beloved Ladies of the Senate was held earlier this week, and it is now my great pleasure to invite you to my luncheon in their honor.

It would be a great joy to have you join us here at the White House on Monday, May 21st at noon. This occasion has always been dear to my heart, and it would be truly special were it possible for you to come.

With highest hopes and great affection,

Warmly,

Barbara

Dear Barbara,

All of our family greatly appreciated your kindness in sharing a special day with us. The President's superb speech touched our hearts deeply and is still receiving sincere raves. Also the guests were happy to see you in person

looking as attractive as you do on TV.

With admiration and congratulations for your latest ball - - a real triumph and richly deserved!

Gratefully,

Pat

March 27, 1990

Dear Pat,

We recently had the pleasure of announcing the establishment of the White House Endowment Fund under the aegis of the White House Historical Association. The Fund will seek to raise a permanent $25 million endowment for the White House, the interest of which would be available to be used for refurbishing the public rooms as necessary and for making acquisitions for the public areas of the White House. Our dear and able friend, Mrs. Earle Craig of Midland, Texas, has agreed to chair the Fund and a Board is being assembled presently. This will be a low-key fundraising effort hopefully to be accomplished within the next couple of years. The Endowment Fund will cease its fundraising efforts when the goal is met.

I have accepted the Fund's invitation to lend my name as its Honorary Chairman, and it is my pleasure to invite you and the other living former First Ladies to serve as its Honorary Committee. I hope you will be willing to join us in lending your name to this effort in this way.

George joins me in sending our very best wishes to you and President Nixon and our gratitude for your consideration of this invitation,

Warmly,

Barbara

we are loving seeing David and Julie here at the White House.
