THE WHITE HOUSE

March 13, 1990

Dear Happy,

The most lovely luncheon given by our beloved Ladies of the Senate was held earlier this week, and it is now my great pleasure to invite you to my luncheon in their honor.

It would be a great joy to have you join us here at the White House on Monday, May 21st at noon. This occasion has always been dear to my heart, and it would be truly special were it possible for you to come.

With highest hopes and great affection,

Warmly,

Barbara

I hope you will come. I promise you it would make two days!

Dear Happy -

The absolutely lovely tea
cup and saucer arrived today. What a treat to have a piece of Nelson's Chinese export with the New York state seal on it.

The lunch was fun in me - Come back soon again.

Warmly -

Barbara

Susan,

The mystery of the cup & saucer:

Dennis Dryer (head of Rockefeller's security) gave the present to Mr. John Simpson to deliver to the White House:

Mr. Simspon sent it to Pat McFarland's office and asked them to bring it to Mrs. Bush's office.

I can see how it got broken:

case

Well John's discuss the problem with
-5.

Whole case:

Well! You had reason
it got broken
is that it had ONLY been purple around it!
Not one little chip broken still; not chipped like the purple. Of course it got broken! - not new!!

THE JAPANESE HOUSE

March 31, 1989

Dear Barbara,

This is a token of my affection and of my appreciation for the delightfully pleasant and exciting luncheon at The White House.

It was wonderful to be with you and a greatly pleasant surprise to see The President. Everyone had a lovely time and as always your gracious warmth prevades!

This Chinese Export teacup and saucer with the New York State Seal
is from Nelson's collection.
I know how pleased he would be knowing it is with you both.

Thanks again for a wonderful time.

I hope if I can ever
be helpful to you, you will let me know.

Hope to see you whenever!

Affectionately
Happy.
