Dear Mr. Bromley,

I send you the Season's Greetings and wish you happiness and success in the coming year.

The year 1989 draws to its close. It has manifested the desire for freedom of the people in Central and Eastern Europe. The scenes in Berlin, Budapest, Prague and Warsaw will long remain in our memories.

The year ahead will make even greater demands on us. 1990 will reflect the common will of all Europeans to shape their future together. In this process we shall have to make a special effort to expand and strengthen the community of European and North American democracies that has grown from their cultural and historical roots.

Please regard the enclosed book as a token of our good cooperation and friendship.

Sincerely yours,

Rec'd. 1/22/90
