Dear Dr. Bromley:

On behalf of the Council of Great Lakes Governors, I am inviting you to be a special guest and main speaker at a major forum on telecommunications, "Great Lakes Telecommunications: Rural Opportunities, Regional Advantage" to be held at the Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee on October 29 and 30.

The Council forum will bring together key Great Lakes leaders and policymakers in telecommunications-based economic development and regulation. Governor Tommy Thompson of Wisconsin is hosting the forum.

All major sectors of the telecommunications industry will be represented, along with key users. Creative applications of telecommunications in health services, education and manufacturing, will be explored. Participants will produce action-oriented recommendations for consideration by the Great Lakes Governors.

The forum will have an especially strong focus on the opportunities created for the Great Lakes region by the federal initiative on high-speed computing and communications. As you know, the Great Lakes enjoy major supercomputing capabilities, along with a wealth of telecommunications resources. Major efforts are already underway in several Great Lakes states to prepare for opportunities presented by the federal initiative. Effective and organized Great Lakes participation can be a major factor in moving the federal initiative forward.

Accordingly, we are eager to secure your participation--or that of your designee--as the Administration's lead coordinator of this initiative--in a prominent role in this forum.

The forum brochure and participant invitation list is attached. We are eager to accommodate your schedule. Please call me or Jeff McCourt at (312) 407-0177 for more information or if, as we hope, you can attend.

Your consideration is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Enclosures: List of forum invitees
Forum brochure

There is no registration fee for this public policy forum which has been underwritten by the conference sponsors and is by special invitation of the Council's Governors.

At the conclusion of the public policy forum, a one-day workshop will be held on Thursday, October 31, 1991 at the same location to formulate a set of regional initiatives arising out of the input from the policy forum.

Due to group size and other logistical constraints participation in the workshop will be limited to selected delegates only. Workshop invitees will be receiving material regarding workshop agenda.

Northwest Airlines is the preferred carrier for this conference. Call 1-800-328-1111 and use booking code 17868 to receive special rates.

Airport to Pfister Hotel
Van shuttle service is provided from the airport by AAA Shuttle Service. Vans depart 10 minutes after the hour and 20 minutes before the hour from the area near baggage claim #3 on the lower level of the terminal building.

The per-person cost is $6.50 one-way, or $11 round-trip.

Taxis are also available at the approximate cost of $15 per taxi.

Car Travel to Pfister Hotel
(424 East Wisconsin Avenue)
For specific directions call 1-800-558-8222 (outside Wisconsin), or 1-800-472-4403 (in Wisconsin).

Parking is available for $8 per day.

The Council of Great Lakes Governors is a private non-profit organization established to foster cooperation on environmental and economic public policy common to its eight member states: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin.

This forum is supported through the generosity of:

The Ameritech Foundation

The Aspen Institute

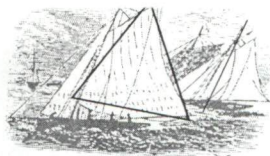

The Ford Foundation

The Joyce Foundation

The Rochester Telephone Company

The Wisconsin State

Telephone Association

Policy Forum Objectives

bring together a selected group of experts and key policymakers in telecommunications and rural economic development from within the Great Lakes region:

- ▼ To create consensus concerning the critical need for the development of a telecommunications/rural economic development policy framework for the Great Lakes states.
- ▼ To create a regional network of practitioners who are successfully utilizing telecommunications to promote rural economic development and workforce training.
- ▼ To inform Great Lakes state economic policymakers about the development potential of telecommunications, as exemplified in local projects.
- ▼ To identify opportunities for joint state action to promote telecommunications development throughout the Great Lakes region.
- ▼ To promote telecommunications as a key economic development tool within rural areas of the Great Lakes region, emphasizing cooperative extension services, technology transfer and technology research centers.
- ▼ To articulate the needs and diverse interests of all involved telecommunications stakeholders on pertinent public policy questions concerning the evolution of rural economic development within the region.

This forum will bring together a selected group of experts and key policymakers in telecommunications and rural economic development from within the Great Lakes region:

▼ To create consensus concerning the critical need for the development of a telecommunications/rural economic development policy framework for the Great Lakes states.

▼ To create a regional network of practitioners who are successfully utilizing telecommunications to promote rural economic development and workforce training.

▼ To inform Great Lakes state economic policymakers about the development potential of telecommunications, as exemplified in local projects.

▼ To identify opportunities for joint state action to promote telecommunications development throughout the Great Lakes region.

▼ To promote telecommunications as a key economic development tool within rural areas of the Great Lakes region, emphasizing cooperative extension services, technology transfer and technology research centers.

▼ To articulate the needs and diverse interests of all involved telecommunications stakeholders on pertinent public policy questions concerning the evolution of rural economic development within the region.

▼ Tuesday,

The Council of Great Lakes Governors is a private non-profit organization established to foster cooperation on environmental and economic public policy common to its eight member states: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin.

This forum is supported through the generosity of:

The Amertech Foundation

The Aspen Institute

The Ford Foundation

The Joyce Foundation

The Rochester Telephone Company

The Wisconsin State

Telephone Association

There is no registration fee for this public policy forum which has been underwritten by the conference sponsors and is by special invitation of the Council's Governors.

At the conclusion of the public policy forum, a one-day workshop will be held on Thursday, October 31, 1991 at the same location to formulate a set of regional initiatives arising out of the input from the policy forum.

Due to group size and other logistical constraints participation in the workshop will be limited to selected delegates only. Workshop invitees will be receiving material regarding workshop agenda.

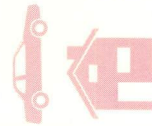

Northwest Airlines is the preferred carrier for this conference. Call 1-800-328-1111 and use booking code 17868 to receive special rates.

Airport to Pfister Hotel
Van shuttle service is provided from the airport by AAA Shuttle Service. Vans depart 10 minutes after the hour and 20 minutes before the hour from the area near baggage claim #3 on the lower level of the terminal building.

The per-person cost is $6.50 one-way, or $11 round-trip.

Taxis are also available at the approximate cost of $15 per taxi.

Dear Dr. Bromley,

I have appended a suggested schedule for your visit to Rochester on November 6-7. Please let us know at your earliest convenience if you have any questions about the schedule.

Dr. Robert Barker, Senior Provost and Director of Cornell's Center for the Environment, has expressed interest in meeting with you during your Rochester visit, so I have added time in the schedule. Cornell faculty members have been affiliated with CEI's programs for many years and we try to facilitate communication wherever feasible.

We would appreciate knowing your flight schedule as soon as it is available.

We look forward to having you with us in Rochester.

Sincerely,

Washington, D.C. 20506

Dear Dr. Bromley:

You recently received a personal invitation from Secretary of the Interior Manuel Lujan, Jr., to address the first National Minerals Policy Forum. Your acceptance is appreciated. As noted in the Secretary's letter, the Forum will be held on Monday, November 4, 1991, in Washington, D.C.

Since the Bureau of Mines is organizing the Forum for the Secretary, I am enclosing a brochure that includes a preliminary agenda for the Forum, a registration form for you to complete and return (by mail or facsimile) to the Bureau no later than September 30, 1991, and other pertinent information.

Senior executives from Government and industry have been invited to attend. In his keynote address, the Secretary will discuss minerals policy for the administration. Other speakers will also discuss minerals policy from their perspectives.

Our goal for the Forum, which from now on will be held annually, is to provide a unique opportunity for open and meaningful dialogue on current and future minerals policies and programs. The results of the Forum will help shape future minerals policies and programs that best serve the national interest. Your participation will help to achieve this goal.

Importantly, ample time has been set aside for discussion of the issues by the participants. This discussion is integral to the success of the Forum. Your participation and that of your colleagues in Government and the private sector is essential for good policymaking.

We appreciate your participating, and I am looking forward to your joining us on November 4.

Sincerely,

Director

5:15 pm Reception

The reception, hosted by the American Mining Congress, will be held in the lobby of the new Bureau of Mines Headquarters at 810 Seventh Street, NW., Washington, D.C. (one block from the Ramada).

THE NATIONAL MINERAL POLICY FORUM

The Forum is the outcome of a discussion between the Secretary of the Department of the Interior and the Director of the Bureau of Mines. They agreed on the importance and desirability of providing an opportunity for public and private sector decisionmakers to assemble and address policy issues affecting the minerals industry. This will be the first of an annual event. The Forum will assist the Secretary in meeting his statutory obligation to foster and encourage private enterprise in the development of economically sound and stable minerals industries. It will also assist the Secretary with his stewardship responsibility for the wise development of the Nation's mineral resources.

The program allows ample time for discussion of the policies and issues raised by the speakers. Participation in this discussion is essential for the success of the Forum.

REGISTRATION

There is no registration fee for the Forum. If you plan to attend, we request that you take a moment to complete and return the accompanying reply form before September 30, 1991. The number of spaces available for lunch is limited and will be filled on a first-come first-serve basis, so please respond early. The form will assist us in making proper arrangements for your participation in the Forum.

To register for the Forum, please complete the reply form and return it by mail or facsimile to:

Dear Paul:

Thank you for your letter of September 30, inviting me to give an evening lecture on July 28 and a short address on July 27 at the opening ceremony of the INPC92 Conference scheduled to be held in Wiesbaden. My apologies for the much belated response.

With the understanding that it is always possible that Presidential scheduling may force a change in my plans, I would be delighted to accept your invitation. As I am sure you are aware, Presidential requests require that I have a great deal of flexibility in my scheduling, particularly so close to an election.

I appreciate your thinking of me and look forward to hearing from you later next year.

Dear Allan,

As you may recall from the first circular, GSI is organizing the next International Conference on Nuclear Physics (INPC92) which will be held at the Kurhaus of Wiesbaden from July 26 to August 1, 1992.

In order to enrich the program with a special high-light we like to invite you to give an evening-lecture (on Tuesday, July 28, 8.00 p.m.) at the conference. Of course the topic is up to your choice and taste. I heard from Walter Greiner that the audience was delighted by your lecture on "Science and Modern Society" recently given at the University of Frankfurt. In my opinion this or a similar topic would be great for the INPC92.

In addition we like to ask you for a short address during the opening ceremony (on Monday, July 27, 9.00 a.m.). For the opening speech and further addresses we have invited Dr. Heinz Riesenhuber, the Federal Minister for Science and Technology, Professor Dr. Evelies Mayer, the Hessian Minister for Science and Art, and Achim Exner, the Lord Mayor of the City of Wiesbaden.

We would be very pleased if you accepted our invitation.

Sincerely yours,

Prof. Dr. P. Kienle

Dear Dr. Block:

Many thanks for sending me the copy of the September 1991 issue of SIAM News, featuring ICIAM 91. I enjoyed having the opportunity to meet with your group and again would congratulate you for the leadership that you have provided in the entire educational arena in terms of developing standards, performance assessment techniques, and elements of new curricula. All of these are vitally important and the mathematics community has taken a very real leadership position.

With warmest best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
